Senate Passes House Bill 536

Concord, NH - Senator Lang released the following statement on House Bill 536, which aims to enhance the oversight of chartered public schools through the establishment of a joint legislative oversight committee.

"HB536, with the proposed amendment, offers a vital opportunity to establish a robust framework for monitoring and enhancing the performance of chartered public schools," Senator Lang stated.

"By implementing a joint legislative oversight committee, we can better evaluate the academic achievements, financial management, and overall operations of these schools, ultimately providing our students with the highest quality education they deserve."
