Bradley Elected Senate President and Names Leadership Team

Concord, NH – Senator Jeb Bradley (R-Wolfeboro) was unanimously elected Senate President today by his fellow senators. Bradley has served in the New Hampshire Senate since 2009 and has also been the Majority Leader through the 2011-2018 and 2021-2022 legislative sessions.

“I am honored and grateful for the unanimous support of my colleagues,” stated Senator Bradley. “Given the economic challenges that hard working families are dealing with, it must be our top priority to exercise prudent fiscal management with their hard-earned tax dollars. That means passing a conservative budget with no sales or income tax, as well as continuing to work on lowering energy costs, and creating more workforce housing. Our focus must be on growing a healthy economy in which our citizens and small businesses can thrive.”
