Senate Passes House Bill 252

Concord, NH - Senator Pearl released the following statement on House Bill 252, exempting agricultural operations from certain municipal noise ordinances, and recognizing the importance of supporting and protecting our state's vibrant agricultural community.

"House Bill 252 recognizes the distinct needs of farmers and ensures they can carry out their essential work without undue interference from certain noise ordinances," stated Senator Pearl.

"This legislation is a significant step towards supporting our agricultural community and fostering its continued growth and prosperity - I want to express my sincere appreciation to my colleagues for recognizing the importance of protecting our agricultural operations."
