Republicans Boost Affordable Housing

Concord, NH - Senator Innis (R-Bradford), issued the following statement on SB231:

“This affordable housing initiative dedicates $75 million over the next two years to a variety of solutions to our state’s affordable housing crisis,” stated Senator Innis.

“SB 231 dedicates $10 million to fight homelessness, including $8 million for local shelters and $2 million for towns without shelters that are nevertheless responsible for housing the homeless in their communities.

“This bill additionally allocates $30 million in state funding to InvestNH, helping cities and towns bring affordable multifamily rental housing onto the market, and provides $5 million dollars in tax credits, to encourage historic conversion to housing.

“SB 231 brings a multifaceted solutions approach to a problem facing families across New Hampshire. I look forward to seeing this important legislation benefit Granite State families.”
