COMMITTEE REPORT

Committee:	Executive Departments and Administration
Bill Number:	HB 155
Title:	renaming Columbus Day as Indigenous People's Day.
Date:	March 4, 2021
Recommendation:	OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT 2021-0396h

STATEMENT OF INTENT

As introduced, this bill replaced Columbus Day in the NH statute that lists state holidays with Indigenous People's Day. The amendment simply adds a new holiday to this section, making August 9 Indigenous People's Day in NH. As we know, humans originated in Africa 200,000 years ago and gradually migrated all over the world. Over time people have settled everywhere, traveled into Arabia, Southern Europe, Eurasia, Asia. Some tribes traveled through the Siberian tundra to Beringia and eventually progressed further over the Bering Straits into Alaska, Northern America, Central America and all the way to the south of the continent. We know them now as the Indigenous people. By resolution 49/214 of December 23, 1994, with the help of the Sub-Commission on the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights, the United Nations General Assembly designated August 9th as the International Day of the World's Indigenous Peoples. Thus we celebrate those original migrants to the Western Hemisphere, the travelers, who 14 thousand years ago made this long, arduous and fascinating journey, over many generations, on foot -- to the Americas; with Indigenous People's Day.

Vote 18-1.

HB 155, indigenous people's day

OTP/A, 18-1, consent

As we know, humans originated in Africa 200,000 years ago and gradually migrated all over the world. Over time people have settled everywhere, traveled into Arabia, Southern Europe, Eurasia, Asia. And through the Siberian tundra made it to Beringia. Some tribes progressed further over the Bering Straits into Alaska, Northern America, Central & all the way to the South of the continent. We know them now as the Indigenous people.

By resolution 49/214 of December 23, 1994, with the help of the Sub-Commission on the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights, The United Nations General Assembly designated August 9th as the Indigenous People's Day.

Thus we celebrate those original migrants to the Western Hemisphere, the travelers, who 14 thousand years ago made this long, arduous & fascinating journey, over many generations, on foot -- to the Americas; with the Indigenous People's Day.

Good News –

On March 4th EDA voted Amendment 2021-0396 h ... that is the amendment I released to the House Session.

It is verbally announced, repeated and then clarified for Rep Shultz again (3 times) ..about 1 hour and 30 minute time into the You Tube video

So, I will cross out the Amd # on the Roll Call that is incorrect that was recorded by Rep Sytek.

HB 155 renaming Columbus Day as indigenous people's day. (2:15/3:55)

1. Rep. Horrigan, prime sponsor, introduced the bill and spoke in support. He described his interest in the bill saying that his district, Durham, now referred to Indigenous People's (IP) Day in its municipal and school district areas. He described the bill as a simple one with complicated issues associated with it. His goal was to eliminate reference to Columbus Day and to call the date as IP Day. He spoke of the history associated with the discovery of North America by Europeans. He described how we have come to know how bad Columbus, the man, was and how the federal holiday came about. He replied to the question why not have both names? There was some discussion about observing the day privately like St. Patrick's Day and removing all official names on holidays.
2. Rep. Toll spoke in support and, citing the history of colonization and associated violence should not be honored.
3. Rep. Edwards spoke about two amendments he was proposing. Their theme was recognizing the work of the UN which in 1972 named August 8 as the world's IP Day. He wants to leave Columbus Day alone as being inclusive. We would be honored the spirit of exploration. He asked how he felt about the fact that there were indigenous people today and that this was part of a movement in NH.
4. Rep. Jan Schmidt spoke in support. She said that statues were coming down. They were the reminders of pain and suffering in the past. For similar reasons, Columbus Day should go. She said it's a federal holiday named after one man and wasn't really a commemoration of Italian heritage in the same way that St. Patrick's Day was. She concluded that it was time to honor IP.

5. Robin DeRosa of Campton, a professor of American History speaking for herself spoke in support. She said that she had expertise with respect to Columbus and was herself an Italian American. She said she was not “culturally proud” of Columbus. She said that he was guilty of genocide in Haiti, instituting sexual slavery and was probably responsible for starting the slave trade from Africa. She said this was supported by his own journals. She said there was great diversity among IP and celebrating them was to commemorate the survivors of his genocide. In answer to a question, she discussed her own family experience and the general conflating of Columbus, whom they did not honor, and their using the day to honor Italian heritage.
6. Rep. Petrigno said he wanted to see native Americans honored but that he was conflicted about this bill. He said he could not support the bill because for him, it would disrespect his family and heritage. He wanted a way to honor both IP and Italian heritage. He spoke of Italian history in America starting with a lynching of Italian suspects in New Orleans. He continued the story of how Columbus Day came to be. He would like the bill to be retained and a middle way found.
7. Kathleen Blake of indigenous heritage and Chairman of North American Commission on Indian Affairs spoke in favor. The Commission did not support any mention of Columbus and rejected the proposed amendment. Speaking for herself, she reviewed her past testimonies and the conduct of the House in its proceedings last year. She also reviewed the atrocities of Columbus.
8. Amy Antonucci of Barrington, self, spoke in support. She said she was an Italian-American but wanted nothing to do with Columbus for the reasons others speakers had mentioned. She quoted from Pope Francis about the injustices done to Indians in the name of God.
9. Paul Pouliot (and wife), representatives of an IP group spoke in support. He said that to use August 9 would dodge the history of Columbus. He then reviewed the atrocities of Columbus and the history of the holiday. He wanted to stop “the false narrative” of European superiority and honor the contributions of IP.
10. Asma Elhuni, self, spoke in support. She said this was a continuation of the racism that have seen. She repeated that some Italian-Americans who have spoken said this was not something they were proud of. She said this was honoring “bad history.”
11. William Thomas of Auburn, a retired civics teacher, self, spoke in support. He said that we should look at history from new sources. He taught his students about primary sources for learning history. He reviewed Columbus’s atrocities.
12. Trysten McLain, self, spoke in support. He said he was raised by Italian-Americans who did not honor Columbus. He said he had Abenaki ancestors. He saw no reason to honor Columbus who was eventually tried for his crimes.
13. Sara Smith, Pembroke, a retired school teacher, self, spoke in favor. She said that she taught her classes that holidays were celebrations. She asked rhetorically how would you present the life of Columbus?
14. Anthony Harris, self, spoke in support. He recalled that he was taught in school that Columbus was a great man. He researched Columbus on his own. He asked rhetorically: why would we teach children, what he called, these lies about Columbus.

15. Carisa Corrow of Penacook, a former HS teacher, self, spoke in support. She spoke of how Columbus was reassessed in HS as contrasted to what was taught in elementary school. She said we should change the name of the day rather than perpetuate the teaching of a lie.
16. Kyra Dulmage of Dover, a HS teacher, an Italian-American who was not proud of Columbus, spoke in support. She said she wanted to share the thoughts of her 5th grade students. One of her competencies was to take “informed action” and she told whom the students interviewed, that they had circulated a petition urging the passage of this bill.
17. Rep. Maria Perez, a Latino of Central America, felt that we should not be celebrating this man as she echoed his terrible misdeeds. She felt that we should be honoring IP.
18. Catherine Corkery, Chapter Chair of the NH Sierra Club, spoke in support. She said it was a way to “make up” relations with the IP for the past. She felt that Columbus Day hurts IP today and unlike St. Patrick’s Day, it is exclusionary. She felt that it celebrates colonization and Columbus’s depravity. She said Italian-Americans don’t celebrate Columbus and honoring IP would be a way to correct history.
19. Sebastian Fuentes of Goffstown, self, spoke in support. He said his children were sitting with him listening and asking why we celebrate Columbus Day.
20. Zachary Harmon, an Episcopal priest, member of the Reconciliation Commission of the Episcopal church NH, spoke in support both as a representative of the church and for himself. He felt that IP and their culture should be emphasized and we should not be celebrating the atrocities of Columbus done in the name of God. He cited his own lineage and how his ancestors had obtained land as a reward for massacres.

Dear Committee Members.

Please accept my amendment to HB155. I will likely be chairing my committee at 2/22/2021 at 02:15 PM when you are scheduled to hear the bill.

My amendment attempts to end the annual argument over whether Columbus Day ought to be killed or not.

Rather than fight that culture war, let's be inclusive of more cultures instead of trying to diminish Columbus and the pride most Italian-Americans find in his contributions to our nation.

Fortunately, the United Nations in 1972 identified August 9th as a day where every nation can celebrate their respective indigenous peoples. This is one time at least where I think the citizens of New Hampshire can join the global community.

Let's agree to agree.

Best Regards,

Jess Edwards

Hello ED&A Committee Members,

I am writing today to ask that you support the amendment that Rep Edwards has presented for HB 155.

I support 2021-0381h as the amendment to HB155 because we could honor our Indigenous People on the day that the UN recognized it in 1972, which is August 9th. It would be a great time of year to observe this holiday!

Thank you

To the members of the New Hampshire General Court. I speak to you today to urge the passage of HB 155 making Columbus Day Indigenous people's day in New Hampshire. This issue is an emotional issue for me because I speak to you as an American proud of his Italian heritage, and as a member of the Knights of Columbus, the National Italian American Foundation, and a member of the Order of Sons and Daughters of Italy in America, Christopher Columbus lodge. I was brought up to revere Columbus as most of the Italian-American community is brought up in the same way. My Uncle's name is engraved on the statue base of the Christopher Columbus statue in Christopher Columbus park in the North End of Boston, as he and his fellow Italian-American fishermen all contributed to putting that statue up, which was vandalized and now has been removed.

In 1992, I did my own extensive study, I read everything I could get my hands on about Columbus because of the 500th year anniversary of his voyage to the New World. What I have found out about Columbus is that both his heroics and his immorality have both been greatly exaggerated. People have been using Columbus as an icon for hundreds of years, but the fact is he was the first conquistador in a long line of conquistadors from Europe to the New World, spreading Christianity where he went and extracting natural resources for profit for himself and his royal sponsors.

Nevertheless, there are those who say that replacing Columbus Day with Indigenous People's Day is part of a "cancel culture" phenomenon. This is not true in fact the original cancel culture is white European culture because every time someone exclaims the Columbus discovered America, they are canceling out the existence of upwards of 50 million native Americans in North and South America whose ancestors had already discovered America and who were already living in the New World when Columbus came here. Every time we use an English or European place name, we are canceling out native culture, which already had a Native place name for where we now make our homes. Think about this, the Spanish burned thousands of Mayan scrolls and razed Mayan buildings when they came to the New World in their efforts to cancel Mayan culture. This is just one of countless painful indignities that natives have had to bear.

Who Christopher Columbus was as a person is much less known than who he is as a symbol. Columbus means different things to different people. To Americans of Italian heritage, he is an expression of pride, but to millions of Native Americans, he is a symbol of the immense pain that their people have suffered for 500 years. I am proud to express my Italian heritage, but if in doing so, I continue the remind Native people of the pain that they have endured, then I believe that Italian-Americans can live without Columbus. We have so many people in our past Italian-American history to look up to with pride.

These are the reasons why I ask that you please pass HB 155. I appreciate you taking the time to hear me out. I believe it is long overdue for our society to begin to make amends and make right the injustices that Native Americans have endured for over 500 years.

February 18, 2021

People's Day
Honorable House Executive Department and Administration Members,

Indigenous
Dear

My name is Fawn Gaudet and I live in New Hampshire. I am requesting Columbus Day be changed to "Indigenous People's Day". I have strong pride in my ancestry and I am a descendant of the Blackfeet Nation. Growing up in NH as a child, I was keenly aware of the injustices committed against Native Americans, this being our Nation first. Before Columbus era, there were millions of indigenous people in North America, Central America and South America. The Wabanaki, known as People of the Dawn, lived in New Hampshire long before colonists arrived. Indigenous people here thrived in harmony with Gedakina- which means "world" for the Wabanaki. Their culture was rich with tradition, honor, respect for their people, land and wildlife. For me, Columbus Day is not a day of joy. It is a day of mourning. During this period of terrorism, indigenous peoples were massacred, raped, enslaved, tortured and genocide occurred. Changing this holiday to "Indigenous People's Day" offers honor and respect to our people. As Columbus Day, the day only marks a false representation of what happened in the past. We must never repeat this. By changing the name to Indigenous People's Day, you will offer truth. It is a chance for New Hampshire residents, indigenous and non-indigenous, to honor those who came before them and respect indigenous peoples who survive to carry on such rich native traditions for our future seven generations. Please change Columbus Day to Indigenous People's Day in NH.

Oliwni- Thank you in Wabanaki,

Testimony In Favor of HB 155:
“AN ACT renaming Columbus Day as Indigenous People's Day.”

Rep. Timothy Horrigan (Strafford 6)

HB 155 is a very simple bill, even though the issues behind it are complicated. It changes the name of the existing mid-October holiday, held on the second Monday in October, from “Columbus Day” to “Indigenous Peoples Day.” This Monday has been celebrated unofficially (and even officially) as Indigenous Peoples Day for many years. It has in fact become a more significant celebration than Columbus Day, and will continue to be a highlight of the yearly calendar regardless of what happens to HB 155.

I am speaking just for myself as the prime sponsor, although I have good reason to believe that I am far from alone: my one and only goal is to rename the official mid-October holiday. Period. I want to continue having a holiday on the second Monday in October, but I want it to be officially named after the native peoples of North America, and I very specifically want it to not be named after Christopher Columbus. That's it.

Christopher Columbus was, as we all learned in grade school, the man who supposedly discovered America in 1492. But, of course, the millions of people who were living in America in 1492 were already well aware that America existed. Columbus himself had an accurate idea of how wide the Atlantic Ocean was, although some of his other assumptions were wrong. He was certainly not the first European to travel to North America. To name the best-known example, Scandinavians established a very well-documented colony in Greenland which survived for 500 years, beginning in the mid-900s. It ended relatively peacefully not long before Columbus's time when the descendants of the original colonists migrated back to Scandinavia in the mid-1400s. Today, Greenland is part of the Kingdom of Denmark.

Columbus Day didn't become an official federal holiday till 1971. Since then, historians have gained a clearer understanding of Columbus, and it is now clear that his journeys were one of the great tragedies in human history.

Also, Columbus never visited what is now known as the United States of America. The closest he came to the USA was the Bahamas. And for whatever it's worth, he was not Italian. He was from the Republic of Genoa, whose former territory is now divided between France and Italy. His native tongue was Ligurian, which is more closely related to French than Italian. He left as a very young man and spent his adult life first in Portugal and later in Spain.

Hello,

I am a resident of Portsmouth and am submitting written testimony in support of HB155. I'm sure we all believe it's important to speak truth and teach our children accurate history. All of us (continuing today) were falsely taught that Christopher Columbus "discovered" America. Besides the falsehood that he never even actually landed on the continental United States, this is a white washing of history and ignores the fact that human being were already residing on these lands. Not to speak of the atrocities that he and other Europeans committed on those Native Peoples. The least we can do is tell an accurate story of the past. One small step is to stop glorifying Columbus and teaching our children accurate history, as well as honor the People of this land. This seems like a very easy and obvious step in the right direction and really it is only our comfort and familiarity with "Columbus Day" that stops us. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Representatives,

Please count my support for renaming Columbus Day to Indigenous Peoples Day. It is important that we stop denying our ancestors' genocidal intentions towards the Native American people. It's important that we learn to recognize the many ways we still practice racism towards our neighbors of indigenous descent.

Changing the name of this holiday will help us begin the educational journey we must undertake to move our nation toward a more peaceful and just future.

IS CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS DESERVING OF A STATE and/or NATIONAL HOLIDAY?

I and a growing number of Americans say "NO" for the following reasons.

First, we do know that Columbus was born and raised in the city-state called Genoa. When Columbus was either a teenager or a young man, he set off to live in Portugal where adventurous sailors had already been sailing to Africa and trying to discover a water route to India.

While in service to the rulers of Portugal, Columbus, according to some historians, waged war against Spain! Some years later, Columbus had moved to Spain and had explained his plan to travel where he thinks no ships have gone in search of India! By this time, there was widespread understanding that the Earth was round, not flat.

Some admirers of Columbus say that to remove this holiday that honors him, would be an insult to Italians. In reality, when Columbus sailed for the Spanish monarchs Ferdinand and Isabella, there was no Italy. Italy did not become a unified country until 1871. The person to honor for Italians should be Garibaldi, the Italian patriot and soldier who was instrumental in the formation of a unified Italy.

Some supporters of Columbus say that Columbus was bold, daring and courageous and that he was living in an era when slavery was almost the norm. Feudalism was the system under which most people lived, similar to how Black sharecroppers lived following the Civil War. So, was Columbus a "man of his times?" Hadn't the Gutenberg Bible been printed during Columbus' lifetime? Didn't church leaders begin to emphasize the 10 Commandments, including "Thou Shall Not Kill?"

How do people today know so much about Columbus and his treatment of the indigenous people he encountered in the "New World?" During his four voyages to "Paradise," he kept a journal and he wrote letters to relatives and friends many of which have been preserved. He called the island he first set foot on as Hispaniola (which today is shared by Haiti and the Dominican Republic). We know what he was thinking and doing because his journals exist and they are preserved in Spain. We also know more about the cruelty and barbarism of Columbus and his men through another set of journals that are primary sources. The man who kept accounts of what Columbus and his men did to the natives they encountered in this New World was a Spanish priest, Bartoleme de las Casas. His journals have also been preserved and translated.

Here is an excerpt from Columbus' journal: "The people of this island . . . all go naked, men and women . . . They have no iron or steel or weapons, nor are they capable of using them, although they are well-built people of handsome stature, and they are wondrously timid. Of anything they have, if you ask them for it, they never say no; rather they invite the person to share it, and show as much love as if they were giving their hearts; and whether the thing be of value or of a small price, at once they are content with whatever little thing of whatever kind may be given to them."

However, what was amazing to me was that in the first two weeks of his 1492 journal, Columbus mentions the word "gold" 75 times. Yes, according to historian Howard Zinn, Columbus was intent on Christianizing the natives and he had many crosses erected across Hispaniola while at the same time the Spanish built 340 gallows by the year 1500 and made great use of them.

Seeing some gold among the natives, he figured there were huge quantities on the island. He then ordered the Arawaks to bring gold and if they didn't, their arms were hacked off. This served as an example to others. Even the Harvard historian, Samuel Eliot Morison who greatly admired Columbus, remarked that Columbus and his men committed genocide against these Indigenous People. There was also widespread rape of native women. Morison wrote: "In the Bahamas, Cuba and Hispaniola, they found young and beautiful women, who everywhere were naked in most places accessible and presumably complaisant." Professor James Loewen, author of "Lies My Teacher Told Me," wrote this: "A particularly repellent aspect of the slave trade was sexual. As soon as Columbus's 1493 expedition got to the Caribbean, before it even reached Haiti, Columbus was rewarding his lieutenants with native women to rape. On Haiti, sex slaves were one more perquisite that the Spaniards enjoyed." Columbus wrote to a friend in 1500, "A hundred castellanos are as easily obtained for a woman as for a farm, and it is very general and there are plenty of dealers who go about looking for girls, those from nine to ten are now in demand."

Yet, in an ominous foreshadowing of the horrors to come, Columbus wrote: "I could conquer the whole of them with fifty men, and govern them as I pleased." So, when Columbus returned to Spain following his first voyage, he brought Ferdinand and Isabella gold and native people whom he had enslaved in chains and presented his treasure to the king and queen. On his second voyage to this "new world," he unleashed a brutal "reign of terror." When he was finished, eight million Arawaks – virtually the entire native population of Hispaniola – had been exterminated by torture, murder, forced labor, starvation, disease and despair." (Peter Montague)

Montague: "A Spanish missionary, Bartolome de las Casas, described how the Spaniards terrorized the natives. Las Casas gives numerous eye-witness accounts of repeated mass murder and routine sadistic torture. One day, in front of Las Casas, the Spanish dismembered, beheaded, or raped 3000 people." Las Casas: "Such inhumanities and barbarisms were committed in my sight as no age can parallel."

Historian Barry Lopez says that the Spanish "cut off the legs of children who ran from them. They poured people full of boiling soap. They made bets as to who, with one sweep of his sword, could cut a person in half. They loosed dogs that devoured an Indian like a hog, at first sight, in less than a moment. They use nursing infants for dog food." Lopez continues: "This was no occasional violence – it was a systemic, prolonged campaign of brutality and sadism, a policy of torture, mass murder, slavery and forced labor that continued for centuries."

Another History Professor, David Stannard, wrote: "The destruction of the Indians of the Americas was, far and away, the most massive act of genocide in the history of the world." Eventually more than 100 million natives fell under European control. Their extermination would unfold and as they died out, enslaved Africans were brought over to replace the indigenous people during the time Columbus was Spain's ruler in this new land. As Lopez describes it, "to make a long story short, Columbus established a pattern that held for five centuries – a 'ruthless, angry search for wealth."

As earlier stated by Morison, Columbus began the genocidal actions against Indigenous People but he then quickly moves on to say this: "He had his faults and defects, but they were largely the defects of the qualities that made him great – his indomitable will, his superb faith in God and his own mission as the Christ-bearer to lands beyond the seas, his stubborn persistence despite neglect, poverty and discouragement. But there was no flaw, no dark side to the most outstanding and essential of all his qualities – his seamanship." All I can say is "Wow!" Is this why, in 2021, many people continue to celebrate this man, and overlook the brutal and barbaric actions he took against Indigenous People? Must we dismiss the cruelty of Columbus and his role in helping to initiate the transatlantic African slave trade?

No, this is not a person to celebrate or to have a holiday named after him. We know about the widespread prejudice displayed against Italian immigrants in the early 20th century and we recognize that the Knights of Columbus was an Italian charity that raised funds to assist struggling families in the U.S. We understand that by placing a Columbus statue literally on a pedestal is a source of pride for many Italians, that it helped to make Italians viable members of the American mosaic.

And, yet, how can we as a people not acknowledge the wrongs that Columbus and his men and others who followed him inflicted upon the Native People of this continent? One obvious way is to have a day when the entire country validates their existence as human beings who were, indeed, subjected to a massive genocide, an almost total extermination of an entire people. As the singular person who unleashed the destruction and annihilation of Indigenous People in the Americas, I ask you to seriously consider supporting HB 155.

As some critics of Columbus have said, "Columbus didn't discover America, He invaded it."

Thank you for reading.

Subject: HB155 Renaming Columbus Day as Indigenous People's Day
Position: APPROVAL for Passage

Greetings,

The Cowasuck Band of the Pennacook - Abenaki People requests that you APPROVE HB155 an act upon changing Columbus Day holiday to Indigenous Peoples Day. The holiday change from Columbus Day to Indigenous People's Day (or IPD) is an ongoing international movement that was brought to the world stage and the United Nations in 1977 by a delegation of Native Nations to the International Conference on Discrimination Against Indigenous Populations in the Americas.

The IPD narrative seeks to decolonize the history that honors Christopher Columbus as a great explorer and patron for Christianity while neglecting to speak about the many atrocities that he committed including establishing the Atlantic slave trade industry. It is time to stop honoring the false historical narrative of European and religious superiority.

Our goal is to recognize the contributions and sacrifices of all Indigenous People past and present. These have been and continue to be Indigenous lands for more than ten thousand years before European conquerors arrived to take our lands, resources, and eradicate our life ways while establishing a policy of genocide against the Indigenous population.

Millions of Indigenous People were living in the Americas before colonial contact. The Pennacook-Abenaki have lived here on N'dakinna (our lands) and have continued to live here for millennia. Furthermore, the state of New Hampshire continues to utilize our many place and geographic names. The contributions that have been made and continue to be made by Indigenous People are vast, and many changed the world to what we now know it to be today. Please see Indigenous contribution attachment*

The historical facts show that the Columbus Day holiday is based on events that no civilized country should be honoring or celebrating.

Columbus was born in 1451 in Genoa, one of a group of city states that existed 410 years prior to the formation of Italy as a country in 1861 and therefore he was not Italian. It is seldom mentioned how voyage funding was obtained through Spain's policy of genocide against the Jewish population in the Iberian Peninsula region through forced removal and seizure of Jewish lands and assets. The stolen property provided the funding needed for Spain and Columbus' global ambitions.

As an agent or mercenary explorer for the Spanish royalty, he made four trips to the Caribbean exploring the area around Cuba and Hispaniola, but never set foot in North America and does not have any historical connection to the United States.

In Columbus' own words he describes the atrocities of genocide that he and his men, and the explorers of the "Age of Discovery" committed against the Indigenous people of the "New World."

Meeting the Indigenous People of the Caribbean he commented on how gentle, healthy, peaceful, and kind that they were to him and his men. Columbus wrote in his diary "they knew not what iron was, they had no defensive weapons, and will be easily enslaved."

After that initial meeting Columbus and his men enacted countless acts of cruelty and genocide during his visits to the Caribbean that included rape, brutal beheadings and dismembering of men, women, and children. He used infants to feed his dogs.

These unspeakable atrocities were committed as acts of entertainment for his men. This type of brutal control and domination was the preferred method used against the peaceful Indigenous People that he wanted to control. We encourage you to read Columbus' own diaries to learn about the numerous accounts of cruelty, where despite commentary that he was "a man of his times" even his own men revolted against him and his barbaric ways and returned to Spain as a prisoner to face trial.

Columbus started the slavery movement in the Americas when he brought back the first Carib Indigenous slaves to Europe - which in turn promoted the global expansion of the Atlantic slave trade that did not end in North America until the end of the Civil War in 1865.

This is not a matter of "honoring" Italians; this is about the continued honoring of a man that committed genocide, slavery, and many other cruel acts against humanity. This is about correcting the inaccuracies and injustice that has been established within American history.

Sir or Madam:

I support HB 155: Indigenous People's Day

Christopher Columbus was a great explorer. His daring feats to find a new world are something that can be admired. His ability to lead and chart a course into unknown waters inspires people, today. And that should be neither ignored nor belittled.

But the First Nation People who have lived on this Turtle Island, now named America, have not fared well because of this discovery and the resulting genocide through disease and domination. October 11 is a day to recognize why this Nation moved forward. For that reason, to recognize the Indigenous People instead of Christopher Columbus brings a better recognition to those to whom this wonderful State can show its gratitude.

Respectfully,

Dear Representatives,

I'm writing to share the ACLU-NH's support of HB155, which would rename Columbus Day as Indigenous People's Day. For some, Columbus Day is a federal holiday and a day off from work. For Indigenous people, it is not a day of celebration. It is a day to remember the invasion of 1492 that led to murder, illness, robbery, rape, and relocation. It serves as a reminder that the U.S. government still celebrates a man whose actual legacy is that of atrocities.

Instead of giving Christopher Columbus a holiday and pretending America's ugly history did not happen, we could celebrate Indigenous people. A national holiday to commemorate Indigenous people is a step in dismantling hundreds of years of injustice and bringing awareness to the present. The day will give Indigenous people a voice to teach their history and an opportunity to promote indigenous justice.

For these reasons, I respectfully urge you to vote ought to pass on HB155. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
Jeanne

Hello Representatives of the Executive Departments and Administration Committee,
I am writing in support of HB155, to rename Columbus Day as Indigenous People's Day in the state of New Hampshire.

Now is the time to recognize Indigenous People and their contributions (like stewarding this land and domesticating many foods we grow in our gardens and farms today) instead of honoring those who sought to steal from, kill and enslave them.

Thank you for your consideration.

Best regards,

To the members of the House Executive Department & Administration Committee,

I am writing in support of Representative Horrigan's bill, HB 155, which renames Columbus Day to Indigenous People's Day. This bill aims to acknowledge the continuing struggles of Indigenous people in America, including the Abenaki (also known as People of the Dawnland), who inhabited N'dakinna, what is now known as New Hampshire, for thousands of years before English settlers arrived in the 1620s.

According to Indigenous NH, Indigenous people have lived in New Hampshire for more than 12,000 years. They recognized this land - their home - as N'dakinna. While Indigenous people maintained the fundamental belief that land was not a thing to be owned, it was brutally seized by colonists. While thousands of Indigenous people live here today, they lack any formal recognition.

This bill (HB 155) begins to acknowledge the struggle of Indigenous residents of New Hampshire. Although acknowledgment is no form of redress for the atrocities of the past, addressing the disregarding of Indigenous values throughout centuries of mass genocide is a compulsory first step towards reparations. Indigenous People's Day, while not an answer to hundreds of years of colonization and oppression, sets our state government on a path towards a more just future.

New Hampshire should not honor an individual who began a systematic campaign of extermination against millions of indigenous peoples in North and South America with a holiday. Instead, let us condemn the atrocities of our past and refocus our efforts on honoring the experiences and contributions of New Hampshire's Indigenous people by passing HB 155.

In addition to HB 155, your committee will also hear two important pieces of legislation honoring Black history in New Hampshire. HB 283 would establish April 11th as Wentworth Cheswell Day, honoring the Revolutionary War hero and first Black elected official in the United States. HB 84 would declare May 21st as Ona “Oney” Judge Day and name the new terminal at Portsmouth International Airport after her. Judge was enslaved by George Washington before escaping to freedom in Portsmouth.

We urge you to actively support the passage of bills HB 155, HB 283, and HB 84 to honor Black, Indigenous, and People of Color of New Hampshire’s past, present and future.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Dear Members of the House Executive Departments and Administration Committee,

I would like to express my support for establishing Indigenous Peoples Day to take the place of Columbus Day.

I am especially speaking as an Italian-American woman. I personally have no interest in being connected with a violent, oppressive man.

While I deeply appreciate the work that Italians before me did to remove prejudice against us in the US, at this point we know much more about Christopher Columbus and the violence he perpetrated especially against Indigenous people, Africans, and women. Continuing to hold him up as someone we want to honor and be associated with disturbs me.

I instead offer the words of Pope Francis from July 2015: "I say this to you with regret: Many grave sins were committed against the Native people of America in the name of God. I humbly ask forgiveness, not only for the offense of the church herself, but also for crimes committed against the native peoples during the so-called conquest of America."

In that spirit, I support ending Columbus Day and instead enacting Indigenous Peoples Day here in NH. That's what would make me feel the most proud of my heritage and my name.

As another person testifying on February 22 mentioned, Mother / Saint Frances Cabrini is an Italian-American who my family is much more proud of, someone who dedicated her life to helping the poor, the sick, immigrants and those less fortunate. I would be honored by a holiday in her name, but see no reason to associate her with Columbus by having that holiday in October. She was born on July 15, 1850 and died on December 22, 1917, either of which would be other options for celebrating her life and work.

I am happy to speak further or answer questions of anyone interested in this issue.

Sincerely,
Amy Antonucci

As I testified, I do not support Columbus Day; however, I do support the continued recognition of Italian-American heritage. Italian-Americans should not lose something they already have. Colorado has successfully done so with Cabrini Day. Please note that New Hampshire ranks 7th in the nation in terms of the percentage of its citizens which are Italian-American and 43rd with Native Americans. Nonetheless, I believe Native Americans deserve recognition as well. Please retain HB 155 to consider an acceptable compromise.

Dear house executives,

It is time that we celebrate the original inhabitants of our state. It is time to honor and enjoy our indigenous cultures. It has been too many years of taking from the natives peoples and I think it is time that we give something in return. Many of our beautiful Lakes have Native American names.. but so few know their meanings. By bringing attention to our indigenous community, we can teach new comers about our history and the tribes that lived here. We cannot forget our past...our indigenous people... Our New Hampshire indigenous people.

Please vote in favor of "Indigenous Peoples Day"

Sincerely,
Julia Andersen

Dear Honorable Members of the House Executive Departments and Administration:

My name is Ann Marie Banfield and I am an advocate for parental rights and academic excellence in education. I submit this testimony in opposition of HB 155.

I've been reading about students in Portsmouth on a quest to replace Columbus Day with Indigenous Peoples Day. Unfortunately they are providing ill-informed reasoning in an effort to make this change. I sense that this proposed legislation comes from the same mindset.

The students cited reasons that paint Christopher Columbus in a bad light. Shouldn't we look to historical experts to determine if this is accurate?

Carol Delaney of Providence RI, taught at Stanford University for 18 years and is now retired. After graduating from BU with a degree in philosophy, she earned an MTS at Harvard Divinity School, in 1976, and a PhD from the University of Chicago, in 1984. She's published several books, including Columbus and the Quest for Jerusalem: How Religion Drove the Voyages that Led to America. While she has no problem supporting Indigenous Peoples Day, she argues against removing Columbus Day for good reasons.

If the sponsors want to introduce legislation to add an Indigenous People's Day, that would be more appropriate.

In Delany's book, "Columbus and the quest for Jerusalem," she writes about how many people really don't know much about Columbus. Through her research she explains how Columbus had a favorable impression of many of the Native Americans he met. He also instructed his commanders not to abuse but instead to trade with them. She reports that at one point, Columbus hung his own men who committed crimes against the Indians.

She took his writings and documents from those who knew him, and reports that he appeared to be on the side of the Indians.

Critics of Columbus tend to refer to Francisco Bobadilla, Christopher Columbus's chief political rival. Columbus spent many years defending and refuting Bobadilla's accounts of him.

Even a defender of the indigenous people, Bartolome de Las Casas, admired Columbus and expressed this in his "History of the Indies."

“They’re blaming Columbus for the things he didn’t do. It was mostly the people who came after, the settlers.” Prof. Carol Delaney told CNA in 2017. “I just think he’s been terribly maligned.”

Nearly a century ago, the Ku Klux Klan targeted Catholics including Italian-Americans. One of the Klan’s tactics was the denigration of Christopher Columbus and the attempted suppression of the holiday. I am afraid the politics of hate continue by attempting to attack and defame Columbus today.

For these reasons I ask you to ITL HB 155.

Ann Marie Banfield
North Hampton, NH

Testimony In Favor of HB 155:
“AN ACT renaming Columbus Day as Indigenous People's Day.”

Rep. Timothy Horrigan (Strafford 6)
February 22, 2021; House Executive Department & Administration Committee

HB 155 is a very simple bill, even though the issues behind it are complicated. It changes the name of the existing mid-October holiday, held on the second Monday in October, from “Columbus Day” to “Indigenous Peoples Day.” This Monday has been celebrated unofficially (and even officially) as Indigenous Peoples Day for many years. It has in fact become a more significant celebration than Columbus Day, and will continue to be a highlight of the yearly calendar regardless of what happens to HB 155.

I am speaking just for myself as the prime sponsor, although I have good reason to believe that I am far from alone: my one and only goal is to rename the official mid-October holiday. Period. I want to continue having a holiday on the second Monday in October, but I want it to be officially named after the native peoples of North America, and I very specifically want it to not be named after Christopher Columbus. That's it.

Christopher Columbus was, as we all learned in grade school, the man who supposedly discovered America in 1492. But, of course, the millions of people who were living in America in 1492 were already well aware that America existed. Columbus himself had an accurate idea of how wide the Atlantic Ocean was, although some of his other assumptions were wrong. He was certainly not the first European to travel to North America. To name the best-known example, Scandinavians established a very well-documented colony in Greenland which survived for 500 years, beginning in the mid-900s. It ended relatively peacefully not long before Columbus's time when the descendants of the original colonists migrated back to Scandinavia in the mid-1400s. Today, Greenland is part of the Kingdom of Denmark.

Columbus Day didn't become an official federal holiday till 1971. Since then, historians have gained a clearer understanding of Columbus, and it is now clear that his journeys were one of the great tragedies in human history.

Also, Columbus never visited what is now known as the United States of America. The closest he came to the USA was the Bahamas. And for whatever it's worth, he was not Italian. He from the Republic of Genoa, whose former territory is now divided between France and Italy. His native tongue was Ligurian, which is more closely related to French than Italian. He left as a very young man and spent his adult life first in Portugal and later in Spain.

Subject: HB155 Renaming Columbus Day as Indigenous People's Day
Position: APPROVAL for Passage

Greetings,

The Cowasuck Band of the Pennacook - Abenaki People requests that you APPROVE HB155 an act upon changing Columbus Day holiday to Indigenous Peoples Day. The holiday change from Columbus Day to Indigenous People's Day (or IPD) is an ongoing international movement that was brought to the world stage and the United Nations in 1977 by a delegation of Native Nations to the International Conference on Discrimination Against Indigenous Populations in the Americas.

The IPD narrative seeks to decolonize the history that honors Christopher Columbus as a great explorer and patron for Christianity while neglecting to speak about the many atrocities that he committed including establishing the Atlantic slave trade industry. It is time to stop honoring the false historical narrative of European and religious superiority.

Our goal is to recognize the contributions and sacrifices of all Indigenous People past and present. These have been and continue to be Indigenous lands for more than ten thousand years before European conquerors arrived to take our lands, resources, and eradicate our life ways while establishing a policy of genocide against the Indigenous population.

Millions of Indigenous People were living in the Americas before colonial contact. The Pennacook-Abenaki have lived here on N'dakinna (our lands) and have continued to live here for millennia. Furthermore, the state of New Hampshire continues to utilize our many place and geographic names. The contributions that have been made and continue to be made by Indigenous People are vast, and many changed the world to what we now know it to be today. Please see Indigenous contribution attachment*

The historical facts show that the Columbus Day holiday is based on events that no civilized country should be honoring or celebrating.

Columbus was born in 1451 in Genoa, one of a group of city states that existed 410 years prior to the formation of Italy as a country in 1861 and therefore he was not Italian.

It is seldom mentioned how voyage funding was obtained through Spain's policy of genocide against the Jewish population in the Iberian Peninsula region through forced removal and seizure of Jewish lands and assets. The stolen property provided the funding needed for Spain and Columbus' global ambitions.

As an agent or mercenary explorer for the Spanish royalty, he made four trips to the Caribbean exploring the area around Cuba and Hispaniola, but never set foot in North America and does not have any historical connection to the United States.

In Columbus' own words he describes the atrocities of genocide that he and his men, and the explorers of the "Age of Discovery" committed against the Indigenous people of the "New World."

Meeting the Indigenous People of the Caribbean he commented on how gentle, healthy, peaceful, and kind that they were to him and his men. Columbus wrote in his diary "they knew not what iron was, they had no defensive weapons, and will be easily enslaved."

After that initial meeting Columbus and his men enacted countless acts of cruelty and genocide during his visits to the Caribbean that included rape, brutal beheadings and dismembering of men, women, and children. He used infants to feed his dogs.

These unspeakable atrocities were committed as acts of entertainment for his men. This type of brutal control and domination was the preferred method used against the peaceful Indigenous People that he wanted to control. We encourage you to read Columbus' own diaries to learn about the numerous accounts of cruelty, where despite commentary that he was "a man of his times" even his own men revolted against him and his barbaric ways and returned to Spain as a prisoner to face trial.

Columbus started the slavery movement in the Americas when he brought back the first Carib Indigenous slaves to Europe - which in turn promoted the global expansion of the Atlantic slave trade that did not end in North America until the end of the Civil War in 1865.

This is not a matter of "honoring" Italians; this is about the continued honoring of a man that committed genocide, slavery, and many other cruel acts against humanity. This is about correcting the inaccuracies and injustice that has been established within American history.

Sincerely,

Denise K. Pouliot, Sag8moskwa

Paul W. Pouliot, Kchi Sag8mo (Grand Chief) and THPO

Thank you for considering this proposal to declare the second Monday in October as Indigenous Peoples' Day. I am Rebecca Courser a resident of Warner.

Indigenous means originating or occurring naturally in a particular place; native. Indigenous inclusion means creating space to recognize and learn about differences and similarities with respect and an open mind. Indigenous people's have always and continue to be living amongst us.

I believe the State of NH should replace Columbus Day with Indigenous Peoples' Day for the following reasons.

1. Christopher Columbus did not discover America or set foot on what we know as the United States. He landed on the island now known as Haiti and the Dominican Republic. His four trips were funded not by the Italians but by the Spanish Crown of Ferdinand and Isabella.
2. Columbus Day was designated as a federal holiday in 1954 after a campaign by Italian Americans and Catholics who were then targets of ethnic and religious discrimination.
3. It is important to recognize and respect the Indigenous Peoples' heritage and their contemporary contributions to New Hampshire. Indigenous people have been living in NH for more than 12,000 years and in North America for at least 24,000 years. A common misconception is that native peoples died or left the state over the last 400 years but that is not true. They have been here all along, hidden in plain sight for a variety of reasons.
4. Public education programs, speakers and festivities could be held to celebrate their contributions to the state of NH both at the local level as well as developing school wide curriculum.
5. To date 14 states: Alabama, Alaska, Hawai'i, Idaho, Louisiana, Maine, Michigan Minnesota, Nevada, New Mexico, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, Vermont, Wisconsin and the District of Columbia more than 130 cities and growing number of school districts celebrate Indigenous People's Day in place of or in addition to Columbus Day. In New Hampshire, the towns and cities of Dover, Durham, Exeter, Hopkinton, Portsmouth, the Concord School Board and the City of Manchester celebrate Indigenous Peoples' Day.
6. We are in the process to add Warner to that list let's add the state also.

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

In the Year of Our Lord Two Thousand Twenty One

AN ACT renaming Columbus Day as Indigenous People's Day.

Be it Enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

1 1 Findings and Intent. It is the intent of the general court that Indigenous People's Day serve
2 as a time for New Hampshire residents to reflect on the continuing struggles of the indigenous
3 peoples of the Americas, including the Abenaki (also known as People of the Dawnland), who
4 inhabited what is now known as New Hampshire for thousands of years before English settlers
5 arrived in the 1620s.

6 2 Holidays. Amend RSA 288:1 to read as follows:

7 288:1 Holidays. January 1; the third Monday in January, known as Martin Luther King, Jr.
8 Civil Rights Day; the third Monday in February, known as Washington's Birthday; the last Monday
9 in May, known as Memorial Day or, on a date to coincide with the federal observance if it is held on
10 a different day; July 4, known as Independence Day; the first Monday in September, known as Labor
11 Day; the second Monday in October, known as [~~Columbus Day~~] Indigenous People's Day; the day
12 on which the biennial election is held; November 11, known as Veterans Day; Thanksgiving Day,
13 whenever appointed; and Christmas Day are legal holidays.

14 3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect January 1, 2022.
