TESTIMONY

* Use asterisk if written testimony and/or amendments are submitted.

Rep. William Foster introduced the bill. This would make a company liable for any damage caused by its medical mandates. This would be for damages to either an employee or a customer of that business. This is to make sure that businesses are willing to take responsibility for what they require to be done.

Rep Turcotte: How or where would this apply?

Rep. Foster If someone does decide to do what the company asks, the company would then become responsible

Rep. Turcotte: Specific example?

Rep. Foster A concert venue requires a vaccine for attendance so the person gets a vaccine and then gets a bad reaction. They still must prove their case. This just gives them the standing to do this.

Rep. Warden: Could this mean someone driving to a drugstore for a vaccine gets in an accident and could he then blame the company that made him feel that he should get the vaccine for the accident

Rep. Foster: I don't think that is provable.

Rep. Sullivan: If I get the vaccine and then get a bad reaction can I sue every company that requires a vaccine.

Rep. Foster: I think you could only sue one.

Rep. Sullivan: I know what you're saying, but I don't see that in the legislation as written.

Rep. Foster: I don't see it that way, but I wouldn't be against an amendment to make it clear.

Rep. Maneval: This doesn't seem limited to physical damage. Could it also be financial or other damage?

Rep. Foster: It was not intended to be quite that broad.

Peter McKenna from DOL expressed a couple of concerns. Damages don't seem to be well-defined in this bill. There are possible damages here that we are not familiar with calculating. We have only historically dealt with employee/employer relationships not business/customer relationships. That is not usually our purview.

Rep. Love: You take no position?

Peter McKenna: Correct.

Paula Minnehan from the NH Hospital Association testified against the bill. She provided written testimony.

Rep. Seaworth: If a hospital requests a medical procedure before admission would that be covered under this?

Paula Minnehan: I believe that is covered under informed consent and medical malpractice.

David Juvet from the BIA testified against the bill. I would like to focus on the customer angle. I was asked today when making a restaurant reservation if I was vaccinated. Under this law I would be able to sue the restaurant.

Rep. Maneval: Apparently If I was required to get blood work prior to an operation and I was injured there I could sue the hospital requiring the blood work

David Juvet: Yes.

Rep. Love: Since I can't be asked about my HIV status how can I be asked about vaccination status?

Dave Juvet: In some cases, you can be asked about your HIV status.

Respectfully submitted,

Rep. Jonathan Mackie

I am writing to in support of HB1410, relative to causes of action involving private business entity policies requiring employees or customers to receive medical treatment. This bill, in essence, requires an employer to assume liability for any damages that an employee or customer can prove to have occurred as a result of attempted compliance with medical mandates. As the federal Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) warned early last year employers should be held liable for any adverse events resulting from mandatory “vaccination” policies related to the COVID vaccines.

In the “Frequently Asked Questions” section of a OSHA guidance that was issued on April 20, 2021 the agency explained that all employers who mandate the COVID vaccine would be required to record any adverse events that result from the injections. If an employee who was forced to be injected became paralyzed or died, for instance, that injury or death will be considered “work-related,” meaning the employer would be held responsible.

They were on the right track but back-tracked in May 2021 simply because they wanted to encourage Covid-19 vaccinations, not because it was the right thing to do. They did not want to deter employers’ vaccination efforts. So they opted to not enforce the recording requirements through May 2022 and said they will reevaluated their position at that time.

Why shouldn’t employers be responsible if they are mandating? These “vaccines” are different than a mask that you can take off when you leave or gloves that can be removed at the end of your shift. This crosses the line. Employers have no business mandating these fake vaccines.

Dear Members of House Committee of Labor, Industrial and Rehabilitative Services,

It is my position that HB 1410 that would hold employers liable for negative impacts of an vaccination mandate is an excellent bill. Employers should be libel financially for enforcing vaccinations against the individual. This federal mandate through "Executive Order" continues to enlist help from private industry to enforce their "decrees." This puts the individual in a difficult situation. Many I'm sure under the threat of losing their job if they refuse, see this action for just what it is: anti-liberty and pro-totalitarianism.

I urge you to consider our constitutional protections we have been blessed with for what they are, as the foundation of liberty. They must be enforced to provide liberty. HB 1410 is a protection of God given liberties secured in the Bill of Rights of both the State and federal Constitutions. Vote OTP on HB 1410.

Sincerely & Respectfully

Russ Payne

Subject: HB 1410 OTP

Importance: High

Dear Members of the House Labor, Industrial and Rehabilitative Services
Committee:

I ask that you support HB 1410 which would impose liability on private businesses mandating medical treatment as a condition of employment or as requirement for customer access for goods or services by providing a cause of action for injuries suffered as a result of attempted compliance with the mandate. If a private business decides to mandate medical treatment, it must take responsibility for the consequences of that mandate.

Medical treatment, including vaccination, is a medical decision that should be left up to the individual, not mandated. Personal healthcare decisions should NOT be dictated by requirements for employment or access to goods or services. Medical treatment must be a choice. There is no true choice when the options are between a medical treatment or a job, goods or services.

I urge you to make sure public policy paves the way for New Hampshire citizens to make responsible informed choices about the best way to care for their health and that of their family. Personal choice, not pressure or coercion, must be the only factor in getting a medical treatment.

Please vote OTP on HB 1410 and support it in the House.

Thank you.

Linda Millman

Subject: HB 1410 Causes of Action for Medical Treatment

Dear Committee Members,

We urge you to support this bill. An employer has a moral responsibility to care for and protect their employees and that responsibility is not precluded by relying on or deferring to mandates from the federal government or by following precedent of government authorities. That is, following standards, rules or laws that are wrong or insufficient, does not relieve the employer's responsibility for their decisions and actions. Additionally, employees should be protected in their decisions regarding their individual body and rights of conscience.

Thanks,

Ben and Keren Dreyer

SUPPORT – HB 1410, relative to causes of action involving private business entity policies requiring employees or customers to receive medical treatment. This is a great bill that makes employers liable for the negative impacts of any vaccination mandate they impose in the workplace. The language needs a little work, but we support this concept because it aligns with the responsibility side of liberty.

THANK YOU

Dear HLI&R Services Committee:

Please support HB 1410; a medical treatment policy involving private employees or customers to enter/work at a business entity. This is a great bill that makes employers liable for negative impacts of any vaccination mandate they impose in the workplace. The language needs to be tweaked, however it is a decent bill.

Thank you,

Dear House Labor Committee members,

My name is Amanda Mastroianni and I live in Merrimack , NH.

There are many reasons why someone would opt out of taking a medical treatment. I don't believe firing someone because they opt out should be allowed in the first place because it is discrimination. But at the very least, if someone is fired for opting out, they should definitely be offered unemployment or severance.

If an employer is making you take a medical treatment (especially one where the makers of the medical treatment have no liability), than that employer should definitely assume liability if the treatment harms that employee in anyway.

Everyone should be allowed exemptions from medical treatments, medical testing and/or medical interventions.

Please pass HB 1089, 1143, 1358, 1377 & 1410 as these bills properly protect those wishing to practice bodily autonomy.

Thank you!
Sincerely,
Amanda Mastroianni

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

In the Year of Our Lord Two Thousand Twenty Two

AN ACT relative to causes of action involving private business entity policies requiring employees or customers to receive medical treatment.

Be it Enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

1 1 Purpose and Findings. The general court finds that:

2 I. The purpose of this bill is to establish that a private entity that mandates, through access
3 or employment requirements, the choice in a medical decision for employees or customers in New
4 Hampshire, for access to goods, services or employment, shall assume the liability for any damages
5 caused by attempted compliance with the medical mandate or requirement.

6 II. Decisions regarding an individual's physical body shall, whenever possible, be the free
7 choice of the individual in a manner most agreeable to the dictates of their own conscience and 8 reason.

9 III. We as a people and a state recognize and acknowledge an individual or businesses right
10 to conduct business, retain employees, and provide access to goods and services as they see fit within 11 the framework of current law.

12 IV. Mandates or requirements in regards to a person's physical body, as a requirement for 13 access to goods services, or employment opportunities by private business, shall come with legal 14 responsibility for damages caused by attempted compliance.

15 V. A private entity mandating a decision of this nature shall come with the responsibility
16 and accountability for any consequences caused by attempted compliance.

17 VI. As the choice to mandate is being made by private entities, without the representation or 18 consent of the people of the state, additional burdens shall be laid upon the private entity.

19 2 New Subdivision; Non-governmental Medical Mandates. Amend RSA 275 by inserting after 20 section 77 the following new subdivision:

21 Non-governmental Medical Mandates

22 275:78 Non-governmental Medical Mandates. A private business entity that imposes a medical 23 mandate on an employee or a customer as a condition of access to goods, services, or employment
24 shall assume liability for any damages that an employee or customer can prove to have occurred as a
25 result of attempted compliance with the medical mandate. The moving party shall be granted
26 standing upon a showing that the moving party suffered any amount of loss or damage which may 27 have been caused by their attempted compliance with the entity's medical mandate.

28 3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.
