The Children's Hospital at Dartmouth provides an extended system of care that offers advanced clinical services for children. CHaD is committed to providing outstanding compassionate care for children and their families, so lets be a part of their day and make a difference. CHaD sees children for everything; from well-care visits to the most complex childhood diseases. CHaD is ranked among the nation's top children's Hospitals and research facilities. This is a great opportunity for you to spend time at CHaD and see what it is all about.

You can purchase an item for the Teen Lounge or for the CHaD's Family Center. You may also write a check payable to the CHaD/Wish List. The kids will be very thankful for your generous donations. THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12, 2006

Lucy Stone, an early leader in the anti-slavery and women's rights movements, will visit the Statehouse on Thursday, October 12 at 7 p.m. in Representatives Hall in the person of living history presenter Judith Black. This is part of the New Hampshire Humanities Council's initiative "Vote: Teaching American Culture, History, Geography, Civics & Government".

Stone (1818-1893) traveled the country speaking out for the rights of slaves and equality for women. Her work was instrumental in turning northern sentiment toward the cause of abolition. Judith Black has earned standing ovations at the Smithsonian Institution and the National Storytelling Festival for her portrayal of Stone.

Legislators are encouraged to invite constituents to join them at this free event open to the public. For more information, contact the Humanities Council at 224-4071 or visit www.nhhc.org.
