Amendment to HB 47

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to inactive license status for real estate brokers and salespersons and the use of limited electronic media.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 1 the following and renumbering the original section 2 to read as 5:

2 New Paragraph; Definition Added. Amend RSA 331-A:2 by inserting after paragraph V-d the following new paragraph:

V-e. "Limited electronic media" means all electronic media that only allow for the presentation of limited amounts of information. Limited electronic media includes, but is not limited to, thumbnails, twitter messages, text messages, and other forms of electronic media existing now or in the future that similarly limit the amount of information that can be presented.

3 New Subparagraph; Advertising; Limited Electronic Media. Amend RSA 331-A:16, IV by inserting after subparagraph (b) the following new subparagraph:

(c) With respect to limited electronic media, the requirements of subparagraphs (a) and (b) shall be satisfied if the limited electronic media includes a link to an Internet display that contains the required information.

4 Prohibited Conduct; Advertising. Amend RSA 331-A:26, X to read as follows:

X. In the case of a salesperson or broker, advertising in any manner without stating the name of the individual principal broker when licensed under an individual principal broker license or business name as licensed for whom or under whom the salesperson or broker operates, except as provided in RSA 331-A:16, IV(c).

2011-1441s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill clarifies the real estate commission's procedure for placing a license on inactive status. The bill also regulates the use of limited electronic media in advertising by real estate brokers and salespersons.

Amendment to HB 72-FN-A

Amend RSA 422:35, II as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

II. There is hereby established the state aeronautical fund. The commissioner is authorized to accept gifts to further the purposes of this chapter and shall deposit them in the fund. The monies in the fund shall be nonlapsing and shall be continually appropriated to the department for the purpose of funding maintenance of airports within the state that are open for public use and planning and implementing capital improvements to such airports. The commissioner may also accept and sell to a third party surplus airport equipment disposed of by the federal government and shall deposit the proceeds of the sale in the fund for the purpose of funding maintenance of and planning and implementing capital improvements to the airport where the equipment was located prior to disposal.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 2 the following and renumbering the original section 3 to read as 4:

3 New Section; Property Held in Airport Property Rooms. Amend RSA 471-C by inserting after section 13 the following new section:

471-C:13-a Property Held in Airport Property Rooms.

I. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, an airport director or designee may dispose of all noncontraband abandoned or lost property that has been held in an airport property room for a period of 180 days and not claimed by the owner. If the owner is unknown or if the owner fails to claim the property within 60 days of being notified to claim the property, the airport director or designee may:

(a) Destroy abandoned or lost property which may contain personal or business information, or property which has a value of less than $25.

(b) Return currency to an identified finder. The identified finder shall claim the currency within 60 days of being notified to claim the currency, otherwise said currency shall be retained by the airport for its use in aeronautical activities.

II.(a) An airport director or designee may dispose of all noncontraband abandoned or lost property that has been held in an airport property room for a period of 180 days which the airport director or his or her designee has not been able to dispose of under paragraph I by:

(1) Donating property which may be of value to a charitable organization to charity; or

(2) Selling the property at public auction. The airport director or designee shall fix a day upon which the auction shall take place, and give notice thereof by publication in a daily newspaper. The notice shall state the date, time, and place when such auction shall commence and shall contain a general description of the types of property to be sold. The notice shall be signed by an airport director or designee. The proceeds of such auction shall be retained by the airport for its use in aeronautical activities or donated to the state aeronautical fund; or

(3) Selling the property on an internet auction site with sufficient buyer participation to ensure that the property receives adequate exposure to the market for goods of the type being disposed of. The proceeds of such auction shall be retained by the airport for its use in aeronautical activities or donated to the state aeronautical fund.

(b) Property which fails to sell at public auction or on an internet auction site may be disposed of in any manner which the airport director or designee deems fit.

III. The airport and the state, municipality, authority, or other entity which owns or manages the airport shall have no liability for any claim thereafter arising or made with respect to property disposed of under this section.

Amendment to HB 474-FN

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to freedom of choice on whether to join a labor union.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Name of Act. It is the intent of the general court that this act be known as "The Franklin A. Partin Jr. Right to Work Act."

2 New Chapter; Right to Work Act. Amend RSA by inserting after chapter 273-C the following new chapter:

CHAPTER 273-D
RIGHT TO WORK ACT

273-D:1 Short Title. This act may be cited as the "Right to Work Act."

273-D:2 Declaration of Public Policy. It is hereby declared to be the public policy of this state in order to maximize individual freedom of choice in the pursuit of employment and to encourage an employment climate conducive to economic growth, that all persons shall have, and shall be protected in the exercise of, the right freely, and without fear of penalty or reprisal, to form, join, or assist labor organizations, or to refrain from any such activity.

273-D:3 Definitions. In this chapter:

I. "Employer" means any individual, corporation, association, organization, or entity that employs one or more persons. The term includes, but is not limited to, the state of New Hampshire and its agencies, every district, board, commission, instrumentality, or other unit whose governing body exercises similar governmental powers. The term "employer" includes, but is not limited to, employers of agricultural labor.

II. "Labor organization" means any organization of any kind, or agency or employee representation committee or plan, which exists for the purpose, in whole or in part, of dealing with employers concerning grievances, labor disputes, wages, rates of pay, hours of work, or other conditions of employment.

273-D:4 Freedom of Choice Guaranteed, Discrimination Prohibited. No person shall be required, as a condition of employment or continuation of employment:

I. To resign or refrain from voluntary membership in, voluntary affiliation with, or voluntary financial support of a labor organization;

II. To become or remain a member of a labor organization;

III. To pay any dues, fees, assessments, or other charges of any kind or amount to a labor organization;

IV. To pay any charity or other third party, in lieu of such payments, any amount equivalent to or a pro-rata portion of dues, fees, assessments, or other charges of a labor organization; or

V. To be recommended, approved, referred, or cleared by or through a labor organization.

273-D:5 Voluntary Deductions Protected. It shall be unlawful for any employer to deduct from the wages, earnings, or compensation of any employee any dues, fees, assessments, or other charges, to be held for, transferred to, or paid over to a labor organization, unless the employee has first presented, and the employer has received, a signed written authorization of such deductions, which authorization may be revoked by the employee at any time by giving written notice of such revocation 30 days in advance of its effective date. Every employer who receives such an authorization from an employee shall have a duty to promptly notify that employee in writing that the employee may revoke an authorization at any time by giving the employer 30 days written notice. 273-D:6 Agreements in Violation, and Actions to Induce Such Agreements, Declared Illegal. Any agreement, understanding or practice, written or oral, implied or expressed, between any labor organization and employer which violates the rights of employees as guaranteed by the provisions of this chapter is hereby declared to be unlawful, null and void, and of no legal effect. Any strike, picketing, boycott, or other action, by a labor organization for the sole purpose of inducing or attempting to induce an employer to enter into any agreement prohibited under this chapter is hereby declared to be for an illegal purpose and is a violation of the provisions of this chapter.

273-D:7 Notice to be Posted. It shall be the duty of every employer to post and keep continuously displayed the following notice at such a place or places in the business, establishment, or premises where it may be readily seen by all employees, and it shall be the further duty of every employer to furnish a copy of such notice to each employee at the time the employee is hired:

EMPLOYEES FREEDOM OF CHOICE

Under the law of the state of New Hampshire, employees are protected in the exercise of their free choice to join or refrain from joining labor unions, and it is unlawful for an employer and a labor union to enter into a contract or agreement requiring them to pay dues, fees, or charges of any kind to a labor union as a condition of obtaining or keeping a job. Under this law, an employer may not discharge or otherwise discriminate against an employee because of joining or refusing to join a labor union, or to pay dues, or other charges to a labor union.

273-D:8 Coercion and Intimidation Prohibited. It shall be unlawful for any person, labor organization, or officer, agent or member thereof, or employer, or officer thereof, by any threatened or actual intimidation of an employee or prospective employee, or the employee's parents, spouse, children, grandchildren, or any other persons residing in the employee's or prospective employee's home, or by any damage or threatened damage to property, to compel or attempt to compel such employee to join, affiliate with, or financially support a labor organization or to refrain from doing so, or otherwise forfeit any rights as guaranteed by provisions of this chapter. It shall also be unlawful to cause or attempt to cause an employee to be denied employment or discharged from employment because of support or nonsupport of a labor organization by inducing or attempting to induce any other person to refuse to work with such employees.

273-D:9 Penalties. Any person, employer, labor organization, agent, or representative of an employer or labor organization, who directly or indirectly imposes upon any person any requirement prohibited by this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, notwithstanding RSA 651:2, shall be subject for each offense to a fine not exceeding $1,000, or to imprisonment not exceeding 90 days, or both.

273-D:10 Civil Remedies. Any person harmed as a result of any violation or threatened violation of the provisions of this chapter shall be entitled to injunctive relief against any and all violators or persons threatening violation, and may also recover any or all damages of any character, including costs and reasonable attorney fees, resulting from such violation or threatened violation, cognizable at common law. Such remedies shall be independent of, and in addition to, the penalties and remedies prescribed in other provisions of this chapter.

273-D:11 Duty to Investigate. It shall be the duty of the attorney general and of each county attorney, to investigate any complaints of violation of this chapter, and to prosecute all persons violating any of its provisions, and to use all means at their command to insure effective enforcement of the provisions of this chapter.

273-D:12 Existing Contracts. The provisions of this chapter shall apply to all contracts entered into on or after the effective date of this chapter and shall not apply to existing contracts, but shall apply to any renewal or extensions of such existing contracts.

273-D:13 Exceptions. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply:

- I. To employers and employees covered by the federal Railway Labor Act.
- II. To federal employers and employees.
- III. To employers and employees on exclusive federal enclaves.
- IV. Where they would otherwise conflict with, or be preempted by, federal law.

273-D:14 Severability. If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of the chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or applications, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are severable.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect January 1, 2012.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill prohibits collective bargaining agreements that require employees to join a labor union.
