LEGISLATIVE ETHICS COMMITTEE

The Legislative Ethics Committee has voted to issue the following advisory opinion, which is printed below in its entirety.

Advisory Opinion 2017-2
Response to a Request for an Advisory Opinion
from Representative J.R. Hoell
(October 6, 2017)

Representative J.R. Hoell has submitted a request for an Advisory Opinion concerning the requirements for reporting sources of income in excess of $10,000 in the Financial Disclosure Form. Specifically, Representative Hoell asked:

“How do private company owners comply with this reporting requirement? For example, if a couple jointly owns a private firm (Corporation, LLC or sole proprietorship), is the reporting requirement for the money taken as salary from the company or is the reporting requirement for any contracts that the firm has with its customers? Said another way, does a firm need to report the customer list if the firm is owned entirely by members of the household?”

The Committee responds as follows:

With respect to Section I of the Financial Disclosure Form:

A legislator who owns a private company from which the legislator received gross income in excess of $10,000 in the preceding calendar year is required to identify only the company the legislator owns.

A legislator is not required to disclose the identity of any customer with whom the legislator's company has a contract or other customer relationship -- even if the legislator received in excess of $10,000 from the customer.

With respect to Section II of the Financial Disclosure Form:

If a legislator's relationship with a customer creates a “financial interest,” the legislator is required to identify and describe that interest in Section II of the Financial Disclosure Form.

Committee Analysis

Every legislator is required to file a Financial Disclosure Form with the Legislative Ethics Committee annually on or before the third Friday of January. (See RSA 14-B:8 and Ethics Guidelines Section 5.) The form consists of two sections.

Section I, “Sources of Income,” requires legislators to identify sources from which a legislator or a household member received income in excess of $10,000 during the prior calendar year. The sources include “any business, profession, or other organization (including any unit of government)” in which a legislator or legislator's household member was “an employee, officer, director, associate, partner, or proprietor, or served in any other professional or advisory capacity” (emphasis supplied). A legislator who owns a private company, such as a corporation, limited liability company (LLC), or sole proprietorship, is required to identify the company if he or a household member draws gross income in excess of $10,000 from the company. The legislator is not required to disclose the identity of any customer with whom the legislator's company has a contract or other customer relationship -- even if the legislator received income in excess of $10,000 from the customer.

Sources of retirement benefits exceeding $10,000 from any business, professional, or other organization must be included, but Social Security, federal retirement and/or federal disability benefits do not need to be included. The sources of income a legislator is required to report do not include securities, such as stocks, bonds, and similar financial instruments.

Section II, “Disclosure of Financial Interests,” requires legislators to identify and describe any financial interest a legislator or a household member may have in certain businesses, professions, occupations, groups, or matters. The so-called “checklist” lists categories such as health care, the practice of law, banking or financial services, education, and any business regulated by the Public Utilities Commission. A legislator is considered to have a “financial interest” in one of the businesses, professions, occupations, groups, or matters listed in the checklist if a change in law, administrative rule, or other official action by the General Court affecting a checklist item would potentially have a financial effect on the legislator or a household member that is distinct from and greater than the interests of the public at large.

Depending on the circumstances, a legislator may have a financial interest that is independent of that of his client or customer, i.e., even if legislation benefits or adversely affects his client, the legislator gets paid the same. In this case, the legislator would not need to check off the client’s type of business on the checklist.

In some cases, however, the legislator’s financial interest is tied to those of his client, as when the legislator is paid on commission or bonus for accomplishing a client’s goals. In this situation, the legislator should check off the appropriate category on the checklist and identify and describe his financial interest.

In specific cases, if there is doubt about whether a legislator’s relationship with a customer creates a financial interest, the legislator should request an Advisory Opinion from the Committee. RSA 14-B:3, I (c).

We appreciate the opportunity to be of assistance.

Honorable Donna Sytek, Chairman
 Senator Sharon M. Carson, Vice Chairman
 Representative Janet G. Wall
 Senator Martha Fuller Clark
 Representative David A. Welch
 Attorney David H. Bradley
 Honorable David W. Hess

For the Committee,
 Donna Sytek
 Chairman

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 21, 2017

On October 21st the N.H. Timber Harvesting Council (NHTHC) will be celebrating its 25th anniversary in West Lebanon at the Annual Loggers and Truckers Convention. The members of the N.H. Timber Harvesting Council and its co-sponsors the University of New Hampshire Cooperative Extension, Thompson School of Applied Science and the New Hampshire Timberland Owners Association (NHTOA) are extending a complimentary invitation to you and a guest to join us for this celebration.

This year’s event starts at 12:00 p.m. with lunch and a tour of one of New Hampshire’s largest (30 million board feet) Eastern White Pine sawmills, Durgin and Crowell Lumber Co., Inc., located in Springfield, N.H. Following lunch there will be a tour of the sawmill, its new wood pellet plant, and, if time permits, Springfield Power, a 16-megawatt biomass power plant. After the tours, join us, beginning at 5:00 p.m., for the annual Loggers & Truckers Convention banquet, awards/graduation ceremony, and a raffle and auction to support New Hampshire’s Professional Loggers Program. The banquet will take place at the Fireside Inn in West Lebanon.

This event is a great opportunity to meet the men and women who work in New Hampshire’s forests, learn more about this important industry, and, most importantly, recognize the achievements of the loggers and truckers who have completed the required coursework for certification or recertification in the N.H. Professional Loggers Program.

To register for this event, please call the NHTOA office at (603) 224-9699.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 26, 2017

All legislators and staff are invited to attend the 2017 Red Mass, which will be held at Saint Joseph Cathedral, Corner of Lowell and Pine Streets, Manchester, New Hampshire on Thursday, October 26th, at 5:15 p.m. The Red Mass is designed to provide all judges, government officials, legislators, lawyers, and members of the law enforcement community with the opportunity to come together to reflect on the power and responsibilities of their offices. Most Reverend Mark O'Connell, Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Boston, will serve as the guest homilist at the Red Mass this year. Immediately following the Red Mass, the Catholic Lawyers Guild will hold a reception at the law firm of Devine Millimet, 111 Amherst Street, Manchester, within a short walk from the Cathedral. There will be refreshments and an opportunity for fellowship at the reception but there will not be a formal speaking program. While there is no need to RSVP for the Mass, please RSVP if you intend to attend the reception by emailing Attorney Bob Dunn at redmass@devinemillimet.com.
