MOTION TO ADJOURN FROM LATE SESSION

Sen. Sgambati moved that the Senate adjourn from the Late Session.

Motion adopted.

Adjournment from the Late Session.

SENATE JOURNAL 13

April 7, 2010

The Senate reconvened at 10 a.m., a quorum being present.

The Reverend Canon Charles LaFond, chaplain to the Senate, offered the following meditative thoughts and prayer:

You've heard me over these last months say over and over in different kinds of ways that how we treat each other is more important than what we accomplish together, that life is a laboratory of being kind and effective, but not necessarily nice. And that's a good model for leadership. There will always be conflict; whether it's conflict in the State House, Senate Chamber, or whether it's conflict at the kitchen table. Conflict is part of creativity. And the question is simply not avoiding the conflict, but how we deal with each other. And part of the problem with being friends and having relationships with each other in the context of such a tight and sometimes intense working relationship is that the important thing is to tease out the difference between unconditional love and unconditional agreement. Unconditional love is very valuable, and I think it's the way the world turns, or is meant to. Unconditional agreement is a treacherous and misplaced vulnerability. Let us pray:

God of our understanding, we acknowledge our need of each other and we celebrate the desire to follow truth. Lead where it will and cost what it may. And give thanks for the opportunity to live that out every day, with as much integrity as we can muster. Amen

Sen. Lasky led the Pledge of Allegiance.
