SENATE JOURNAL 20

June 16, 2016

The Senate reconvened at 10:30 a.m. a quorum being present.

The Reverend Jason Wells, chaplain to the Senate, offered the prayer.

As I rise before you I bring a request for a moment of silence for those who were murdered at the Pulse Nightclub this weekend. We'll take 30 seconds for silence. And I have, for myself, I have my usual 200 words followed by a prayer that I always go to myself in times of crisis, whether that is a personal or a national crisis I'm concerned for. And I hope to share that with you all. So let's take 30 seconds for respect and for holding a complex situation before our God.

Thank you.

My intention in these reflections is never to tell you all what to do. I would not be invited back if I did that. But I hope to say something about the mindsets that we approach our task of leadership with.

And, on Monday, I found myself at Saint Anselm College while Donald Trump was speaking. I won't tell you why I was there because I, also, won't be invited back. But there were supporters and protestors, and I eavesdropped on two men who were talking to each other. One guy had a Trump sign, and the other one had a Next Gen Climate Change button on. And, between us, I kind of anticipated the conversation was about to erupt into some kind of throw-down like I've been watching on the news. But they stood there for an hour and did not raise their voices. They talked issues— all of the issues: global warming, income inequality, trade, everything you could think of they talked about. They listened. They responded kindly. And I heard each of them say to the other, tell me more about that so that I can understand.

The fact that Granite Staters are highly, civically engaged while also being generous, decent and understanding of others is our state's most precious natural resource. It is the seed corn of democracy— handed down, carefully preserved from past seasons. As in farming, the seeds of democracy must be planted afresh in every generation.

It is in your position and in mine, as a pastor, that we each hold a handful of that seed corn. And the question for us is, will we eat the seed corn now, before planting? Exploiting this to satisfy immediate hunger? Or will we receive the corn as a gift, as New Hampshire's heritage, and sow it into the land; trust those who cultivated it before us, and watch it grow, and hand on the seed to democracy's next season?

Let us pray.

Lord, make us instruments of your peace. Where there is hatred, let us sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is discord, union; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. Grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

Senator Reagan led the Pledge of Allegiance.

RESIGNATION OF STATE SENATOR

(The Chair recognized Senator Forrester.)

SENATOR FORRESTER: Thank you, Mister President. I ask for personal privilege, Rule 2-16? I'd like to read a letter from Senator Little dated June 3rd, addressed to the Senate President.

Dear Senator Morse:

Please accept this letter of resignation, which I hand delivered to your office today with very mixed emotions.

As you know, I am submitting this resignation shortly before being sworn-in to continue serving the citizens of New Hampshire in a new and exciting role; that of State Bank Commissioner. I am looking forward to this new opportunity and I am extremely grateful for the help and support you gave me to make it happen.

At the same time I am sad that I am leaving the Senate. Serving the citizens of District 8 in the upper chamber has been one of the highest honors of my life. I will remain forever humbled by it and the faith and trust you placed in me. The assignments to the Finance and Fiscal committees were at once daunting and motivating. I now firmly believe that the best way to learn how New Hampshire government works is to sit on those two committees concurrently— to work as part of the team building the state budget and then work with House and Senate members on Fiscal to make sure that the various departments follow the plan. Thank you for entrusting me with that awesome responsibility.

I've had a fairly close seat to the legislative field of action in various positions for several decades but there is absolutely nothing like being in the arena and I am very pleased to have been there as part of your team. You are a great leader and I am very pleased to have served under you.

I am to be sworn-in as Bank Commissioner this afternoon at 3:00 p.m. Please accept this resignation as effective upon my swearing in.

Sincerely and with great respect,
Gerald H. "Jerry" Little
State Senate District 8

Thank you, Mister President.

PRESIDENT MORSE: Thank you Senator Forrester. Without objection Senator Forrester's remarks will be in the permanent Journal, and we wish Commissioner Little the best. So, congratulations.

Recess. Out of recess.

LATE SESSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRESIDENT MORSE: Randy couldn't join us today, but I did a Resolution and you've all signed it for Randy. I'd just like to read it.

In recognition of his unyielding dedication to the safety and security of New Hampshire's State House, legislators and employees, for more than 17 years, most recently as Chief of Protective Services. Randy has been a friendly face and a helpful hand, ensuring a safe environment and tourist destination for all who spend time within these granite walls. And be it further known that the New Hampshire Senate extends its sincerest gratitude and best wishes to Randy and his family for many years to come.

It's signed by all of you and, also, the Clerk. I wish him the best. He's been in several times and he's just a great person.

(The Chair recognized Senator Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much. It's my pleasure to author, with all the rest of you, your Resolution for Mr. Rayno. So, Garry, why don't you step right up here. We didn't give him too much to write about today, which is not necessarily a bad thing, not today. But, as somebody who has served in this building a long time and has dealt with numerous reporters, I think Garry is one of the most fair, honest, prizes integrity, gets the story as correct as possible, is here to report the news, not make the news or sensationalize the news; somebody that you can trust on the record, trust off the record, and somebody who over the years has become a good friend and a fellow Red Sox fan. I just wanted to recognize Garry for his great work, and we're certainly going to miss him as he departs for greener pastures, I'm sure. So, let me read the resolution for you, Garry.

This is a State Senate Resolution honoring Garry:

In recognition of serving as the State House Bureau Chief for the New Hampshire Union Leader for 16 years, following many years writing for Foster's Daily Democrat on all issues related to policy, politics and state government, [and electric utility deregulation— yes, exactly, that was years ago but he still remembers], but especially for his credibility, trusted journalistic excellence and defining coverage of many issues the State of New Hampshire has faced over the years. And be it further known that the New Hampshire Senate extends its sincerest gratitude and best wishes to Garry upon his well-deserved retirement.

GARRY RAYNO: Thank you all. I really appreciate this. It's been almost 20 years that I've been here between Fosters and the Union Leader. And I don't see too many faces here who were here the first day I walked in here in 1989, which was a long time ago. But one of the first people I talked to was then House Speaker Doug Scamman. I was sitting in his office and Doug said to me, he says, Garry, I want you to know that there're two reasons for everything we tell you: the real reason, and the one we tell you. And then he remembered that he was speaking to a reporter and he says, well, you know the real reason is something like he voted against my bill back when. And I always tried to find the two reasons for everything. And it's been a pleasure, and I thank you all for your help over the years, and I leave with a heavy heart, but I'm happy to be moving on and getting away from the grind, if you will. So, thank you very much.

Without objection all personal privileges and unanimous consent (other remarks) shall be entered into the permanent Journal of the Senate. (Rule 2-16 and Rule 2-17)
