SENATE JOURNAL 18

May 23, 2018

The Senate reconvened at 10:00 a.m., a quorum being present.

The Reverend Jon Hopkins, chaplain to the Senate, offered the following prayer:

I take the prayer this morning from the first prayer given at the First Continental Congress in 1774.

Dear God, who is above all the kingdoms, empires and governments, look down in mercy we beseech Thee, on these our American States, who have fled to Thee from the rod of the oppressor and thrown themselves on Thy gracious protection, desiring to be henceforth dependent only on Thee. We appeal to you today for the righteousness of our cause; we look up to you today for countenance and support. Take the New Hampshire State Senate under Thy nurturing care, give them wisdom and counsel; defeat the malicious designs of people who desire to undermine democracy, freedom and justice. Be present, O God of wisdom, and direct the councils of this honorable assembly; enable them to settle things on the best and surest foundation. That order, harmony and peace may persist; and truth and justice, religion and piety, prevail and flourish amongst the people. Preserve the health of their bodies and vigor of their minds; shower down on them and the millions they represent, such temporal blessings as Thou seest expedient for them in this world. We give thanks today for all those men and women who have given the last measure of devotion to protect our best values of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, and pray that our actions will honor their sacrifice. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

(The Chair recognized Senator Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much. You know, this is a great time of the session, it happens to be a beautiful day outside, and we get to pay tribute and thank all the people that make our job possible from keeping us safe to making all the deadlines, to drafting the legislation, to opening the State House and keeping it in shipshape condition; across the gamut the people at the back of the room do that for us. And it's just a great day, and it's an honor to be able to spend a few minutes in thanking each office individually.

And we'll start out with Office of Legislative Services and our very capable leader David Alukonis.

Joyce Phinney and her team of accountants that keep us on the straight and narrow, where's Joyce? There she is, hiding.

Virginia Drew and Deb Rivers, where are you? They're taking a tour. How fitting! How fitting, they're doing a great job.

Scott Rupp and all the IT staff who keep us connected.

Doug Dolcino and his team at Operations that really make sure the building is spotless all the time. Doug.

I don't see Joe Burke, but his team at Protective Services. We've upgraded that significantly over the last few years. And given some of the things that are happening around the country, knowing that Joe and his team is doing such a great job keeping this building as safe as possible and as open as possible. Joe.

Dianne, our Statehouse Nurse. Where is Dianne?

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: She's taking a pulse!

SENATOR BRADLEY: She must be – somebody other than Senator D'Allesandro that is getting treatment.

We've got to thank our friends in the House. Terry's not here. I'm sure he's working hard at the House, but the House also keeps things moving very well. Thank you, Terry.

Ann Fitzgerald and her team of House Researchers. Where's Ann?

Researchers Patrick Murphy, Diana Ferguson, and Theresa Neves, at Senate Research.

It's always a great pleasure to thank Tammy. The Senate Clerk's, I mean we all know it; there's nobody that could do a better job than Tammy and the team. It changes a little bit from time to time, but Tammy's constant leadership is just a wonderful thing.

So, on our side of the aisle we have a lot of great staff, also. I think Senator Soucy and Senator Woodburn will thank the Democratic staff.

Kate Spinner does a great job with the press. Thank you very much, Kate.

Bobby Collins, where are you Bobby? There he is – another great job.

Josh Elliott, a great job. I'm glad we have similar suits on today.

Nancy Nolin, couldn't do it without you upstairs running interference for all the rest of us.

Rick Lehmann, where'd he go? No applause for Rick?!

Senator Morse is not going to do it but I've known Shannon for a long time. It's great to have her back. Great to have her back with her child, who now comes to visit us. You do such a great job, Shannon. Thank you very much.

And Angela's over there hiding in the corner. I'm sure she'll get thanked by Senator Innis, but Angela is the leader of all the Administrative Assistants and does a terrific job.

Now I get to thank Kyle. I wouldn't be able to do this job without Kyle. I've had a lot of people that have assisted me over the years, both in Washington and here. He's simply the best. For all of you in the gallery don't go hiring him.

Thank you, Mister President.

PRESIDENT MORSE: Senator Bradley, I would like to make a couple of introductions because we planned this out this year, and we planned on having summer interns and they're joining us on the floor today, so Margot Shang from Harvard University; and Jarrod Solloway from Saint A's. And Kate's promoting that you keep them busy, so good luck!

(The Chair recognized Senator Woodburn.)

SENATOR WOODBURN: Thank you, Mister President. I want to just echo the comments of the Majority Leader and thank everybody who does so much in this building. You know, sometimes we think it's all focused around us, we understand that you do it all, and it the words of the Yankee slugger Reggie Jackson, "You're the straw the stirs the drink." You do it all, and we appreciate it very much. I want to, also, just recognize on the Minority staff, Donald Manning, Alan Raff, and Marlene Taylor, as well as all of the individual aides that serve our Senators in their respective offices. So thank you for your service.

(The Chair recognized Senator Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you. The Budget Assistant folks weren't here. They must be doing all the final calculations on 1817. They keep Senator Daniels and Senator Morse and the rest of us on the straight and narrow. Thank you very much.

(The Chair recognized Senator Avard.)

SENATOR AVARD: Thank you, Mister President. Hopefully I speak on behalf of my colleagues in my room 105-A. Many of you have probably seen the movie Superman, but you know that it was Wonder Woman that saved his butt! And I want to recognize Marie, my assistant. I'm just a front man – she actually is the brains behind the operation in the room. So, I'm very grateful for Marie, she does an amazing job taking care of three Senators.

And, also, standing next to her on the left hand is Griff. Griff is amazing. I bounced everything off of him to make sure I wasn't losing my mind, and he said no you are. But an amazing job, an amazing job.

And I also want to echo, again, Superman, which is Kyle, who does an amazing job.

And Radar, Josh, just amazing. You're always there; you always know what's going on.

And sitting next to him is the Captain. I've got a name for everybody up here.

But, thank you Marie for doing an amazing job, and keeping me, and all of us in line.

(The Chair recognized Senator Feltes.)

SENATOR FELTES: Thank you very much, Mister President. On behalf of Senator Hennessey, and Senator Cavanaugh, and myself, I want to give a great shout-out to Jess Bourque, who keeps us all, you know, in line, on schedule, on time, under budget, all kinds of things in the LOB 5, the basement office of the Legislative Office Building. Staying strong, thank you Jess for everything that you do.

(The Chair recognized Senator D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Having been around here the longest, I salute everybody for all of the great work that you've done for me over the years. I couldn't have been here without your help, and that's everybody. That's sweet Joyce who handles the business office – I love her to death. Now that she's got her extended office it's like a palace visiting. So, thank you very much, Joyce; to the LBA staff, to everybody who has helped me.

But especially to sweet Sonja – Sonja's been with me for, what, fourteen or sixteen years – fourteen. Alright, so she came along and kind of makes my day a good day. You know, as the old telephone ad used to say, "She makes my every hello a good bye." And I can't beat it. She's been with me a long, long time; done great things for the office, and you know it's busy. It's just a busy, busy place, but she takes care of it, and takes care of it well, and I just can't thank her enough for everything that she's done.

I want to say one more thing before we go. And I have here an apple, okay? And let me tell you this: no one is prouder of his grandchild than I am of mine. Last Thursday night, in New York City, at the United Nations building, my grandson spoke to five-hundred executives, and he received the Hero award for his work helping children and adults with hearing difficulties.

And as Senator Morse knows really more than most of my colleagues, this kid's been through the mill. He's had fourteen operations over his lifetime. He had open heart surgery when he was four-years-old and we're lucky to have him alive. But, the most important thing is he's helping others, and he's a Super Hero. But, I brought this apple back, and I want to give it to the Senate President because the Senate President bought the comic book, and he paid almost $1,000 for the comic book at an auction, and he has it in his office. And he knows how much I appreciate what he's done, so I said who else could better deserve an apple from the Big City than the Senate President? So, thank you for caring, thank you for all of the work that you have done, but especially, in our family, thanks for all you've done to make our grandson's life better and to help those in need. And you can't say more than that. Thank you, Mister President.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

(The Chair recognized Senator Birdsell.)

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I rise to thank all of you for all of your hard work. I always have said that we are successful because we have such a dedicated staff working for us at all levels in the Statehouse; so a couple of people that I'd like to recognize.

First, Mister Alukonis – I've known Mister Alukonis for years. We served in the House together, and he's also a constituent. And he's here every day, and he really works very hard for us and I think he's provided great leadership for OLS.

Anthony and Jeff, you helped me put my thoughts together and get them down right on paper, and I want to thank you both very much for all of your hard work.

I can't do two committees without two very, three really, able people that are just there every day: Jen, who is the committee secretary for Judiciary;

Rick Lehmann, who is our attorney, and I know he's here because I saw him – there we go; and Miss Chroniak – I cannot say enough about Deb. Deb and I have worked together for ten years and she handles everything; everything that I give her and she does so with style, with grace, and she gets the job done. And, again, Mister President, I couldn't thank her enough.

Mister President, I'd also like to thank you and the Majority Leader for leading us this session. I think we've had some rough spots, but you got us over that, and you have set the tone for civility in this body that I think matters so much to all of us. And I want to thank the both of you for all of your hard work, and even the Minority Leader, as well. We're very lucky to have these folks with us in this chamber. We might not always agree, but we're not disagreeable, and I think that's why we're able to get good things done for the state of New Hampshire.

And, lastly, I would like to say goodbye to my good friend, Senator Lasky. We don't always agree, but I've known Bette for almost twenty years now. We've served together in the House, we're on Judiciary together, and I am going to miss you so much. And I wish only the best for Bette as she moves on with her family, and you're going to be missed.

(The Chair recognized Senator Sanborn.)

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. I rise to make a couple of comments for a couple of staffers: to Sonja, it's rare in this business that we, as legislators, find people who can take control of a committee for a long period of time, you become an expert at it, and it's your expertise and proficiency that's truly made it very seamless, with no disrespect to any new committee admin help, you're really a foundation of what makes that committee run very, very smoothly, and I always appreciated it. Thank you very much.

And to Renata – you're living the American dream. Your love of your husband, your faith, the fact that you started to try and raise twin kids in foster care, and still work real hard – you're an amazing young lady. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Senator Gannon.)

SENATOR GANNON: Thank you, Mister President. I want to thank, first, Deb; "Jenny from the Block," can't forget you; and Kat. I apologize, I've been free-lancing this whole year on the blurbs and sort of using them as a pattern, but I go off in little rhyming schemes.

Kat, thanks for putting up, mostly with me, but also with the bear, and the two deer, and if I get re-elected, the moose that's coming next year, but we'll talk about that. I just got to say one thing for Kat. Kat just graduated. I went to night law school; it's very hard to do it with a full time job. I have to concede to her – I think her GPA is slightly higher than mine was, and I congratulate her, and wish her a great life with her new husband Rick, and thank you all.

(The Chair recognized Senator Watters.)

SENATOR WATTERS: Thank you, Mister President. I just wanted to have a word of thanks to Michael Collopy, one of the rookies around here. And, you know, over there in 101-A, aka the “man cave,” which had an interesting history since Patrick left. We had a lot of touch and go landings and empty desks for months at a time, and I think Michael’s really a keeper and much appreciated. And I think a special sympathy is due. He’s got the office with two academics – just let that one settle in. Thank you, Michael.

(The Chair recognized Senator French.)

SENATOR FRENCH: Thank you, Mister President. I rise to thank my assistant, Kathy Cummings. My first term here I didn’t know exactly what we would be doing. I went in and I asked her what her position was, and she said everything except getting you lunch and getting you coffee. And I said thank you. She never has. Every day when I’m here and I go to a meeting; before I leave the room she asks me, do you have your glasses? I check, yes. Do you have a pen? Yes, thank you very much. I go to the meeting. She has kept me very much organized, and above all she guards the office in which we sit, John and I, like no one else. As you note, she’s not here today because she’s at her post. She will not leave it! She is a great assistant and we, truly, appreciate her.

(The Chair recognized Senator Lasky.)

SENATOR LASKY: Thank you, Mister President. I have to, first of all, thank Trish, who has been my loyal assistant and wonderful for me this session. She keeps me on track, and it’s not an easy task because I must have her do a calendar every five minutes so that I don’t miss something, and it gets worse as I get older. So, thank you, Trish, for everything. And we won’t tell anybody about all the other things you do that you’re probably not supposed to, so thank you.

And, oh, my longsuffering husband is here! At any rate, she let the cat out of the bag, I am retiring. Senator Carson let the cat out of the bag, and I am retiring and so I have to thank each and every one of you for the assistance, the caring, the knowledge, everything that you have given me over the past twenty years in the House and in the Senate and the friendship from all of you. I will miss you all, but I’m not leaving town so I may come back to haunt you.

And I have to give a special shout-out to my “Chair-head.” Representative Alukonis and I, he was the Chairman of Ways and Means when I served on that, begrudgingly, in the House. They took Judiciary away from me and gave me – Representative Alukonis, well I have to tell you that, if I hadn’t told you before, it was some of the best two years that I have had here, and thank you, and glad to see you back. And “Chair-head” is a little inside joke, but he will always be “Mister Chair-head” to me.

And, again, I guess, you know, again, thank you. Thank you for all the kindnesses you’ve shown me. I wish you all the best of luck, joy, and happiness to you all. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Senator Birdsell.)

SENATOR BIRDSSELL: Thank you, Mister President. It’s hard to go up against what the good Senator from District 12 said about Marie, but I just want to say thank you, Marie, for everything you’ve done, you do for us. You keep the three of us straight; you keep us going when we’re supposed to be going; and I will always be “pink.” I also want to...that’s how she keeps us organized – pink, green and yellow.

I also want to say thank you to Kat for the organization as being the Legislative Aide for Transportation has been unbelievable. You are a great Legislative Aide. I love having you there.

And Tricia, thank you for your patience. This is your first time around. You were amazing and we can’t tell you how much we appreciate everything that you’ve done. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Senator Giuda.)

SENATOR GIUDA: Thank you, Mister President. Griffin’s grabbing his throat – I’m not sure why. I have to say that it’s such an incredible honor and privilege to be here among my colleagues and among the staff. As many of us know, we weather life’s storms away from this room, but are able to do amazing things through the people, and businesses and institutions of our state because of this room and because of every single one of you standing here. And so, from my heart, and from my mind, for the good of our people and our state, I thank each of you for what you do for me and for us and for the people of our state. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Senator Kahn.)

SENATOR KAHN: Thank you, Mister President. I know that my colleague from District 21, Senator Fuller Clark, would no doubt want to recognize Jenny Horgan, and what I want to say in thanking Jenny, and all the Legislative Office Building team, is the camaraderie that they establish, and it makes me glad when I get into the office being greeted by folks who I know are there day in, day out doing work for all of us, and Jenny, you're one of those spirited members of that group, and I appreciate you all. So, for Jenny, thank you.

And I just say, as an unbashful, first term Senator, that the folks who answer the requests in Senate Research, in the Legislative Budget Assistant's Office, and in Legislative Services, I just couldn't ask for better support, counsel; your turnarounds are rapid, I felt like a member of many years getting the same kind of service that I know you provide everybody else. So, I need to thank you all, and everybody who helps make the spirit of this place endure – thank you very much.

(The Chair recognized Senator Innis.)

SENATOR INNIS: Oh, Angela. So, I'll go back to the first day I was here, and I walked into the office and I said why do I have a solo office? Nobody has a solo office as a freshman Senator. And she said well you're Chair of Commerce. And I said so. She said well it's a very busy committee. And that's all she said. And I think that really gets at – she doesn't remember. I do. That really gets at Angela: she is concise, she's right on point, and she uses those skills to keep me concise and right on point because I have a tendency to wander a little bit or think about something else, and she says no you've got the FNs that have to be done, and you have to do this and you have to do that, and you've got seventeen more bills, and you have to be done in an hour. So get all that done. She never lets me see her rest. I've never really seen you take a break. I believe in mental health breaks, but she doesn't need one; that's awesome. She's incredibly organized, and I think she's someone – well I like to bend rules. Rules are there to bend. She will not bend them. And I think that's probably good in the Senate.

Finally, those of you who have been in my office, there are two aluminum poles that sit by my desk. Those are for flags. I had the wrong kind of flags for the poles so they looked like Festivus poles. And Angela has never once poked fun at my Festivus poles. So, come November I'm going to have the right kind of flags and put them up there. Angela, thank you so much for all that you've done.

(The Chair recognized Senator Soucy.)

SENATOR SOUCY: Thank you, Mister President. I, too, want to thank all of the professional staff around this building; not just for their professionalism and confidence, but most of all for their support. You know, all of us come to this job with different ideas about what we want to accomplish and everyone, I think, in this staff treats every member of this body as an equal and as someone who is coming here to do the right thing and believes in the right thing whether you might personally agree or not, and that's really testament to all of your professionalism.

I certainly want to also want to thank Donald Manning and Alan, who do a phenomenal job, not just for me and Jeff but for our whole caucus.

But I have to give a special shout-out to Marlene Taylor, and I had not seen Marlene come up. I wish she were here. First of all because some of you may have noticed, but the job of keeping Jeff Woodburn organized and on top of things is a full time job plus in and of itself, and yet with all the work Marlene does to help Senator Woodburn she is my right hand in this building. I could not do the work that I do, sponsor the bills that I do, carry things through and, on a personal level, she is one of the kindest, most supportive, and wonderful people that I know; she's a very dear friend, and I really, truly appreciate Marlene. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Senator Hennessey.)

SENATOR HENNESSEY: Thank you, Mister President. I rise, and I'm so glad that Senator Innis brought up mental health because that's a specialty of mine, and one of the ways in which it's shone in this body is that there are some people who pick me up when I break into pieces, which is more often than some of you may know. First of all, I'd like to thank all the people who look my way here who are just, I feel somehow as if I should go up and hold your hands or something sometimes. I just thank – being right up front and center it really – thank you, very much.

I'd also, I have to say that there are three people who, besides all the people in our caucus who have made phone calls as I've been driving home wondering if I'd ever come back to Concord, you know, people who have really, really helped me understand that this is a community that matters and that we take care of each other. But, also, of course, our unbelievable LOB 5 assistant, Jess Bourque, who many times picks up the pieces and puts me back together again with Scotch tape and bubblegum to try to get me out the door. Also, do you have a pen, do have a pad of paper, do you know where you're going? You know, that kind of stuff, it's really critical.

Of course, Jen has been remarkable, as well. Every now and then I have to pop in her office and just say tell me again why I'm going to run again for this office? And it's just been absolutely remarkable having you on board; and also as the secretary of the Judiciary Committee, just remarkable, remarkable.

I have to say that within our caucus, of course, Jeff Woodburn has been wonderful about calling me up and checking in with me when he sees me leaving with some look on my face that I'm sure makes everyone wonder what might happen next. And, really, to check in with me and see how I'm doing and keep me going, and suddenly I sort of feel like I know a little bit about what I'm doing here and I appreciate that very, very much.

And to Bette Lasky, who has, on Judiciary, been a friend and a colleague and also walks behind me with a wad of Scotch tape to put me back together again. So I thank you very much.

And, of course, my office mates. I could thank you all. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Senator Gray.)

SENATOR GRAY: Thank you. Being a Senator somebody told me I'm low maintenance. I don't know that Renata would say that, but, you know, there are certain people in your life that make things much better. Certainly Renata – keeping me on schedule, making sure that my memory, you know, is up to date.

Trish – even though this our first year together, you know when I would be concerned about how many bills I'd scheduled for a hearings and stuff she says no problem I've got it. You know, I mean all of you people out there have supported me in various ways. I appreciate you all. Thank you very much.

And Nancy keeps the gates, you know, so that I don't get overrun by anybody. So we've got to thank Nancy, too. Even though we may want to change some of her birthday cartoons, right?

Thank you all.

SENATOR WOODBURN: Thank you, and if I could just add one piece. I speak and I often look towards Senator Reagan and it's always, don't say much; and Senator Reagan always gives advice. But I just have to say one more thing, and that's I didn't praise, I just recognized, the staff in the Minority office, and starting at the top:

Marlene, who endures me, keeps me going, everything that's handed to me is lost, and doesn't mind meeting forty fourth graders and bring them right into the office and disrupt everything in there. Not to mention dealing with – she went from Sylvia Larsen's District of Concord, to the North Country where my constituents are so much different and our needs are so much different, and she has just been so graceful the way she's taking care of me, but more importantly taking care of them.

And I also want to say to Donald Manning, who I convinced to come back to this building; best of friends for many years. We met in this building in the early '80s when I was an intern and he was a young staffer. So great to have life bring us back together and have him in the Minority.

And Alan, who were losing very shortly here – just love having him and admire his work and his commitment.

But the purpose of my rising is to recognize the best school in the state of New Hampshire. Now I don't say that because I graduated from it, I don't say it because I taught there, I don't say it because my kids went there, but the Whitefield Elementary School is just a fabulous place and we are so glad to have you here in the State House, so welcome!

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much. There are two more people I think we need to pay tribute to. It's very typical of Kristy Merrill that when she would give me the list of everybody that I had to thank that her name would not be on it. It just goes to show how gracious, and humble, and self-effacing Kristy is. She was just honored in the 40 Under Forty – she barely made it, she'll be 39 forever! Senator Morse is always the first person here every day, but I can attest to the fact that Kristy is always the last to leave. She's incredibly hard working; without her, the trains just in this entire building, and for all of us, would not run. So, thank you very much Kristy.

And, lastly, I've been around this business a long time. I've had the opportunity to serve under a lot of people: Speaker Harold Burns, Speaker Sytek, Speaker Chandler, Speaker Hastert, Speaker Boehner, Senate President Larsen, Bragdon, and now Senator Morse. And I can tell you that there's nobody more trustworthy, nobody more principled, no one with more integrity than our leader, Senator Morse. He's always the first one here. He's the hardest working person I've ever seen. It's been a pleasure to have worked with you and for you for the Senate, but more than for the Senate I think all twenty-four of us, and everybody else in this room, epitomizes what Senator Morse stands for. We're not here for ourselves, we're here to serve the people of the state of New Hampshire, and Chuck knows that and that's how he lives his life. Thank you very much.

PRESIDENT MORSE: It's probably a perfect opportunity because all the staff's here, which we didn't plan it this way, but I think we should probably take advantage of the fact that everyone's here. I don't know if we're celebrating or we're a little saddened, but we certainly have two members of the Senate that have announced they're not returning, and I'd like to honor them today, and I'd like to give them the opportunity to come up and say a few words.

I'd like to honor Senator Bette Lasky and Senator Andy Sanborn. You both give an incredible amount of time to the Senate, and your dedication for doing what you believe is right is unmatched. Your service and dedication to the Senate, constituents, and the state of New Hampshire has not gone unnoticed.

Senator Lasky – you have worked endlessly for the people of Nashua, fighting for their interests at every turn – and I want you to know I started in the House with you – especially in the Judiciary Committee and in the Commerce Committee where you served this session. In the eight years you've served in the Senate, not to mention the decade you served in the House before, you've worked to improve our public education system helping to create the leaders of tomorrow, ensure the rights of victims are protected, fought tirelessly for trains again and again, and supporting measures to improve our elections. In this session alone, three of the many bills you sponsored and co-sponsored, all with bipartisan support, are now law; with more to come, no doubt. The Senate, and the committees on which you serve, will certainly not be the same without your unique perspective and your dedication you have to your community and this state. I've truly enjoyed getting to know you over the years and know how important family is, but we hope that you will be able to spend more time with your husband Elliot, and your daughters and your grandchildren. We wish you the very best and we thank you for everything you've given to the Senate.

SENATOR LASKY: Wow, I've never been up here! Thank you, Mister President. Wow. I honestly don't, I had something, you know, sort of planned to say, but those of you who know me know that I am not often for a loss for words, but I truly am right now. But, I first need to thank the people of Nashua and the people in my District who have supported me all these years no matter where I've been, what I'm doing, and without them I would not have been able to serve in the House and the Senate; and I have to tell you that has given me the opportunity to have, oh probably, some of the best experiences of my life. We all know what an honor it is to serve the people of this state, and aside from that, there are tons of other opportunities that this opens the door for. I have been proud and honored to be a part of history in many ways, and hopefully to kind of help make that history; and that has been a remarkable experience, which I think those of us sitting here understand.

Also, my daughters, one time when I was in their good stead, they gave me a bowl that says, "To have helped someone's life breathe a little easier, that is to have succeeded." Well, I thought about that and I think about it often, and how lovely it was to come from them, but also in terms of this job. If, in any way, I have helped to make one person in this state's life easier, then I truly feel I have succeeded. We all know it's not an easy task, but it's one we all do because we love our state, we really, truly are here, I believe, each and every one of us for the right reasons. Lord knows it's not for the monetary value and what we get, but it is for the people; the people out there and, frankly, the people in here, and all of you, and everyone who has been a part of these two chambers.

I can't tell you how much you all mean to me. The memories I have in my heart will clearly live forever. I will have been proud to serve with each and every one of you; proud to know each and every one of you; and I just, you know, cannot tell you how much these years have meant to me.

My husband, Elliot, who if I look at, I will start to bawl. But has been with me through this, supported me through this, been my campaign manager, my speech writer, my rock; and I hope we've all opened some doors for him as well to have been part of this, and I am so grateful.

To my daughters, who were young kids when I started this; now they are, unfortunately, part of the reason I'm leaving is that they are both far away. But they have given me three of the greatest gifts that I will ever have – my three granddaughters. And, as you all know, I want to be part, a bigger part of their lives and not feel torn about being here with the job that I love, and being there with the family that I love.

So, it is all good things, you know, have an end to some degree, and I'm just so happy I have the ability to say thank you to each and every one of you; to tell you how much you mean to me, all of you. To wish you all a good rest and I'm going to wish the Republicans a little longer rest than some of my other friends! But at any rate, I love you all, and please, my door is always open whether it's in Nashua or New Orleans, which may be enticing to many of you, or wherever I may land. I truly mean it; I don't want you to be strangers. Thank you.

Thank you, Mister President. It doesn't have an alarm, does it?! Oh, how lovely!

PRESIDENT MORSE: Senator Sanborn – in the eight years that we have served together I have seen you fight tooth and nail for your constituents in District 9 and businesses across the state of New Hampshire. As Chair of the Ways and Means Committee, to the Election Law and Internal Affairs, and with each of the bills you've brought forward, you have a familiar philosophy about the role of government, and have often voted together with me, including even when we're outnumbered. I have a lot of respect for your perspective and your drive to keep government out of business as a small business owner. Now that you are running for Congress, there is no doubt that you will continue to fight for our beliefs in Washington. We wish you the very best of luck on the campaign trail this summer, and we truly appreciate everything you've done for the New Hampshire Senate. Thank you.

SENATOR SANBORN: So, I didn't expect this so I have no remarks, which Reagan would love because I'll be relatively quick. You know it's interesting because my journey here is very different than, frankly, most of your journey's here because I never wanted to be here. I never wanted to be a Senator, never wanted to get into politics. But for me, as those of you who own businesses and have families in businesses understand, sometimes that relationship between business and government gets a little sideways. And today I think that's one of the biggest challenges we have is the fact that our relationship in the business community is truly struggling with our government. Yes, as the Senate President would say, I fight tooth and nail because I'm very concerned about our future. I'm concerned about what it takes to solve our problems. You know I've long said that I believe that the single most important social program we could ever create that will solve virtually every single problem our society has, is a good job; and you can't be pro-job if you're not pro-business. Now I've seen the struggles in this building, I've seen the challenges that we all have as we all try to find that common ground and find solutions to the same problem by taking different roads. And I also say, regularly, that in this business sometimes you are the windshield and sometimes you are the bug. And I have been very, very fortunate that I have been the windshield more than I have been the bug, much to the chagrin of some of my friends from Nashua.

This is an amazing place, and it's been a great opportunity. I just hope as we all go forward, that there are a couple of things that we need to think about. I'm petrified that Concord, New Hampshire has actually becoming Washington, D.C. In the ten years I've been roaming these halls I have seen all of us get further apart versus closer together; the personal attacks; the back-handedness; the things that don't make us who we are. The things that are creeping in from across the country that doesn't make New Hampshire what New Hampshire is supposed to be.

But I've also seen great things. I have seen people coming to visit others when they're challenged, sick, hurt. I've seen people in this building and in this room stand up for others in a very private way because they never wanted to see or hear it talked about. You guys, that's what makes us who we are. The fact at the end of the day that Woodburn and I can stand up and debate like hell, fight, fight, and then meet for a beer after work, it's rare in this business today. And I truly hope for all of you that come back, and I hope all of you do come back that want to come back, that you spend time becoming friends again; recognizing the fact that we're here to fight about policy not personalities. That in spite of all of it, we're all trying to do good for our state and our people.

And lastly, I know it's very difficult in this building, and with the power, and the influence, and the opportunity – but believe in our people, believe in everyday peoples' ability to have common sense, to solve their own problem without passing legislation, to support our communities; not by making more programs and throwing more money at it, but by recognizing that every time you create a new program, or every time you expand this or expand that, you're actually taking money from hard working everyday people, who also sit down on a Friday night and say they have mortgage, health insurance and a broken car and they can't afford all three. Please do not forget about them. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MORSE: From all of us here in the Senate, I just want to thank both of you for your service to the state of New Hampshire on behalf of all of us, thank you very much for everything you've done for us. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Senator Daniels.)

SENATOR DANIELS: Mister President, before we leave this chamber today, I just wanted to say that I've been blessed in the last couple of years to have an assistant with Deb Martone. And I know that she's told me many, many times that she doesn't like the spotlight, but she has had the opportunity over the last two years, every day that I come in, to tell me where to go, and so it's only right that I bring her into the spotlight now, and recognize the hours that she has put into this job. I mean, Finance is like Union Central at times, it's Grand Central; people coming in and out. She's here early in the morning, she stays late at night, she's in on weekends, but the thing that I can always depend on is when I come in the next day things are organized ready to go forward. And we've been able to take "Chaos Central" and turn it into "Comedy Central" sometimes and that keeps things going. And I know that she has just been my left and right arm in making sure that things are organized as we go through Finance, and as we particularly go through the Committees of Conference, and I just can't say enough about the work that she has done. And so, on behalf of all those on Finance, I would just like to thank Deb for all the time, the effort and energy she has put into the job, and into the Senate as a whole. So thank you very much, Deb.

PRESIDENT MORSE: Why don't we take a recess for ten minutes? All the Senate Bills from the House have come over so we'll take a ten minute recess and get ready for that.

Recess. Out of recess.

Committee of Conference Report on SB 564-FN-A, relative to a business tax exemption and a workforce development program for regenerative manufacturing businesses.

Recommendation:

That the Senate recede from its position of nonconcurrence with the House amendment, and concur with the House amendment, and

That the Senate and House adopt the following new amendment to the bill as amended by the House, and pass the bill as so amended:

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Purpose and Intent Statement. The general court intends that this act be liberally construed and applied to promote the following underlying purposes and policies:

I. The general court recognizes that:

(a) New and emerging technologies in the late 20th and early 21st centuries have resulted in the creation of entire new industries within the United States and that those technologies have been the primary drivers of economic development during that period.

(b) When such industries are created, they tend to grow in geographic concentrations, create additional opportunities for new businesses of all varieties, and boost the overall economy of the states in which they appear.

(c) Regenerative manufacturing, the creation of new tissue for medical purposes, is an example of an emerging technology that will change current medical practice, advance the health of the citizens of New Hampshire and the United States, and create a new industry.

(d) New technologies require substantial investments in research and development in order to become economically viable, and therefore often require support during this process that other industries do not require.

(e) The government of the United States and companies within New Hampshire have already begun investing time and resources into the advancement of regenerative manufacturing in the state, making it uniquely suited to New Hampshire and the most likely of all emerging industries to replicate here the successes seen elsewhere.

II. The general court therefore declares:

(a) It is the public policy of the state of New Hampshire to advance the study and practice of regenerative manufacturing within the state.

(b) This public policy will advance the public interests of the state and its citizens by:

(1) Providing new, high paying jobs, both in the field of regenerative manufacturing and in other fields that support that industry and those who engage in it.

(2) Attracting highly skilled professionals who will raise their families in the towns and cities of the state.

(3) Fostering the development of a new industry that will grow and advance in New Hampshire.

(4) Contributing to the sciences within the state and improving its reputation as a place that fosters science and technology.

(5) Increasing tax revenues by attracting and generating new businesses and property owners that otherwise would not have located in New Hampshire.

(1) Making New Hampshire a more attractive place for new businesses to begin studying regenerative manufacturing.

(2) Attracting companies that are already engaged in the study of regenerative manufacturing into the state.

(3) Supporting any current New Hampshire company that wishes to enter the field of regenerative manufacturing.

2 New Paragraph; Business Profits Tax; Definition of Qualified Regenerative Manufacturing Company. Amend RSA 77-A:1 by inserting after paragraph XXIX the following new paragraph:

XXX.(a) “Qualified regenerative manufacturing company” means any business organization which meets each of the following requirements at all times during the entire taxable year:

(1) It files with its return for the taxable year an election to be a qualified regenerative manufacturing company in accordance with RSA 77-A:5-c or has made such election for a previous taxable year; and

(2) At least 75 percent of its business activities over the course of the tax year meet the requirements for an active regenerative manufacturing business, or, in the case of a subsidiary located in New Hampshire, 75 percent of that subsidiary’s business activities meet the requirements for an active regenerative manufacturing business.

(b) For purposes of this paragraph, the term “regenerative manufacturing” means any aspect of the manufacturing of blood, tissues, tissue constructs, and organs for the purpose of researching, diagnosing, treating, or curing any disease or injury, such as (1) cell collection, culture and scale-up, (2) biomaterial selection and scale-up, (3) tissue process automation and monitoring, (4) tissue maturing, and (5) tissue preservation and transport.

(c) For purposes of this paragraph, the term “active regenerative manufacturing business” means the conduct of any business activity the primary focus of which is any one or more of the following areas:

(1) Performing research relating to regenerative manufacturing;

(2) Performing regenerative manufacturing activities;

(3) Researching, developing, manufacturing, or supplying technical services in support of regenerative manufacturing, such as process engineering, automation, facility set-up, and distribution services;

(4) Researching, developing, manufacturing, or supplying technologies utilized in regenerative manufacturing, such as cellular and non-cellular source materials, tools, equipment, reagents, and other supplies; and

(5) Performing any activity necessary to bring a product created through regenerative manufacturing to market, including but not limited to seeking patents, regulatory approval, performing clinical trials, and sales.

3 New Paragraph; Business Enterprise Tax; Definition; Qualified Regenerative Manufacturing Company. Amend RSA 77-E:1 by inserting after paragraph XIV the following new paragraph:

XIV-a. “Qualified regenerative manufacturing company” means any business enterprise which is a qualified regenerative manufacturing company as that term is defined under RSA 77-A:1, XXX at all times during the entire taxable year.

4 Business Organization; Exemption for Qualified Regenerative Manufacturing Company. Amend RSA 77-A:1, I to read as follows:

I. "Business organization" means any enterprise, whether corporation, partnership, limited liability company, proprietorship, association, business trust, real estate trust or other form of organization; organized for gain or profit, carrying on any business activity within the state, except such enterprises as are expressly made exempt from income taxation under the United States Internal Revenue Code as defined in RSA 77-A:1, XX. Each enterprise under this definition shall be subject to taxation under RSA 77-A:2 as a separate entity, unless specifically authorized by this chapter to be treated otherwise, such as, but not limited to, combined reporting. Trusts or foundations treated as grantor trusts under section 671 of the United States Internal Revenue Code shall be included in the return of their owners, and such owners shall be subject to the tax thereon to the extent such owners would be considered a business organization hereunder notwithstanding the existence of the trust or foundation. The use of consolidated returns as defined in the United States Internal Revenue Code as defined in RSA 77-A:1, XX is not permitted. Notwithstanding any other provision of this paragraph, an enterprise shall not be characterized as a business organization and shall be excluded from taxation at the entity level if it elects to be treated as a qualified investment company as defined in RSA 77-A:1, XXI or if it elects to be treated as a qualified regenerative manufacturing company as defined in RSA 77-A:1, XXX. A partnership, limited liability company, estate, trust, or foundation except grantor trusts pursuant to section 671 of the United States Internal Revenue Code, "S" corporation, real estate investment trust, or any other such entity, other than an organization electing to be treated as a qualified investment company as defined in RSA 77-A:1, XXI whose net income is reportable by the true owners either directly or indirectly, or an organization electing to be treated as a qualified regenerative manufacturing company as defined in RSA 77-A:1, XXX, shall be subject to tax at the entity level, and no part of such earnings or loss shall be included in the calculation of the gross business profits of the owners of such entity.

5 Business Enterprise; Exemption for Qualified Regenerative Manufacturing Company. Amend RSA 77-E:1, III to read as follows:

III. "Business enterprise" means any profit or nonprofit enterprise or organization, whether corporation, partnership, limited liability company, proprietorship, association, trust, foundation, business trust, real estate trust or other form of organization engaged in or carrying on any business activity within this state, except such enterprises as are expressly made exempt from income taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code to the extent such enterprise does not engage in any business activity constituting unrelated business activity as defined by section 513 of the United States Internal Revenue Code. Each business enterprise under this definition shall be subject to the tax imposed under RSA 77-E as a separate entity except that trusts and foundations treated as grantor trusts under section 671 of the United States Internal Revenue Code shall be included in the return of their owners, and such owners shall be subject to the tax thereon to the extent any such owners would be considered a business enterprise hereunder notwithstanding the existence of the trust or foundation. The use of consolidated returns as defined in the United States Internal Revenue Code or of combined reporting is not permitted. Notwithstanding any other provision of this paragraph, an enterprise shall not be characterized as a business enterprise and shall be excluded from taxation at the entity level if it is a qualified investment company as defined in RSA 77-E:1, XIV or if it is a qualified regenerative manufacturing company as defined in RSA 77-E:1, XIV-a.

6 New Paragraph; Business Profits Tax; Qualified Regenerative Manufacturing Company; Election and Reporting. Amend RSA 77-A by inserting after section 5-b the following new section:

77-A:5-c Election and Reporting for Qualified Regenerative Manufacturing Companies.

I. Business organizations shall file an election with the commissioner to be a qualified regenerative manufacturing company with respect to any taxable period on a form prescribed by the commissioner at any time on or before the fifteenth day of the third month immediately following the end of such taxable period. Such an election shall be effective for the taxable period of the qualified regenerative manufacturing company for which it is made and for all succeeding taxable periods until such election is terminated as provided in this section.

II. The election to be a qualified regenerative manufacturing company shall expire for taxable periods beginning after December 31, 2027. No subsequent election may be made after the expiration of an election, with respect to either the business organization or the active regenerative manufacturing business conducted by such business organization or any successor business organization.

III. Every business organization electing treatment as a qualified regenerative manufacturing company shall, with respect to each taxable period, file a report, in accordance with such rules or forms as the commissioner may prescribe, setting forth the following:

(a) The names, addresses, and federal taxpayer identification numbers of the holders of any equity interests in such qualified regenerative manufacturing company.

(b) The name, address, and federal taxpayer identification number of the manager of such qualified regenerative manufacturing company.

(c) The amount of the income received and expenses incurred by the qualified regenerative manufacturing company for the tax period.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a qualified regenerative manufacturing company shall be deemed to have satisfied the reporting requirements of this section if it files with the commissioner a copy of its federal income tax return, as filed with the Internal Revenue Service.

IV. Such report or copy of the federal income tax return shall be filed at any time on or before 30 days following the filing of the federal income tax return with the Internal Revenue Service. Any qualified regenerative manufacturing company which fails to timely file the report as required by this section shall pay a penalty equal to $100 for each day such report is not filed, unless an extension has been granted by the commissioner. In no event shall the monetary fine imposed by this paragraph exceed $5,000. A qualified regenerative manufacturing company notified by the department that such report is overdue by more than 50 days shall have 30 days from the date of such notification to file the delinquent report.

V. The qualified regenerative manufacturing company shall be subject to the provisions of RSA 77-A:11 and RSA 77-E:10. The commissioner is authorized to audit and enforce such provisions with any of the powers granted under this chapter and RSA 77-E.

VI. The election provided for in paragraph I may be terminated as follows:

(a) By revoking said election by consent of the majority of the members, partners, or shareholders of the qualified regenerative manufacturing company, or by determination of the manager of the qualified regenerative manufacturing company. Such revocation must be filed with the department on or before the fifteenth day of the third month of the taxable period to be effective for such period. Any revocation filed after the fifteenth day of the third month of the taxable period shall be effective for the following tax period; or

(b) Whenever the company ceases to satisfy the requirements for qualification as a qualified regenerative manufacturing company as provided in RSA 77-A:1, XXX.

VII. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the Advanced Regenerative Manufacturing Institute, Inc., a New Hampshire non-profit formed to advance the regenerative manufacturing industry and as of the effective date of this paragraph is operated out of Manchester, New Hampshire, is deemed a "qualified regenerative manufacturing company" as that term is defined in RSA 77-A:1, XXX, provided that it complies with the requirements of RSA 77-A:5-c, III.

7 New Chapter; Qualified Regenerative Manufacturing Company; Business Finance Authority. Amend RSA by inserting after chapter 162-R the following new chapter:

CHAPTER 162-S

REGENERATIVE MANUFACTURING WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

162-S:1 Declaration of Need and Purpose. It is declared that there is a statewide need for the preservation and development of a skilled workforce for the betterment of the economy of the state, its inhabitants, and in particular for the development and preservation of a regenerative manufacturing workforce. It is the purpose of this chapter to provide for the development, attraction, and retention of skilled, qualified, and productive workers within the state who will be capable of supporting the preservation, establishment, and redevelopment of business and industry, preserving or increasing the social welfare or economic prosperity of the state or its political subdivisions, and promoting the general welfare of the state's citizens. It is further declared that the business finance authority (hereinafter the "authority"), acting pursuant to the powers granted in this chapter shall be regarded as performing an essential governmental function in carrying out the provisions of this chapter.

162-S:2 Acquisition of Student Loans of Qualified New Hampshire Employees.

I. The business finance authority, as established and authorized under RSA 162-A (hereinafter the "authority"), may expend or loan money upon such terms and conditions as prescribed by the authority to acquire loans or other evidences of education indebtedness incurred by persons for the purpose of financing postsecondary education and to provide for deferment or forgiveness of repayment of such education indebtedness pursuant to a program or programs established by the authority and approved by the governor and council pursuant to this chapter.

II. In granting deferment to any loan or other evidence of education indebtedness incurred by persons for the purpose of financing postsecondary education, the authority shall cause no interest to accrue to the principal of the loan during any period of deferment it offers.

III. Any student indebtedness that may be subject to a program or programs established by the authority under this chapter shall meet the following minimum requirements.

(a) The person shall have achieved academic requirements such as graduate degrees or other evidence of academic achievement as has been determined by the authority;

(b) The person shall be employed to perform primarily active regenerative manufacturing business activities as that term is defined in RSA 77-A:1, XXX and the principal office at which such person is employed is located within New Hampshire;

Annual state appropriations and other funds from state or federal sources, and any gifts, grants, or donations, shall be credited to the fund. The state regenerative manufacturing workforce development fund shall be administered by the authority and shall be used for the sole purposes of carrying out the purposes of RSA 162-S:2. The authority shall invest the fund in accordance with RSA 6:8. Any earnings on fund moneys shall be added to the fund. All moneys in the fund shall be nonlapsing and shall be continually appropriated to the fund for the purpose of providing regenerative manufacturing worker educational debt relief as provided in this section.

II. The authority may create subfunds or trusts of the state regenerative manufacturing workforce development fund, which shall be held by the authority apart from all of its other funds, which may be deemed irrevocably pledged to secure the repayment of state workforce development bonds issued under RSA 162-S:4. 162-S:4 Issuance of Bonds.

I. The authority may issue bonds pursuant to this section which shall be obligations of the authority and not general obligations of the state, except as provided in RSA 162-A:17. Such bonds may be issued from time to time consistent with the purposes and provisions of this chapter to make expenditures under RSA 162-S:2, to pay or refund any bonds issued pursuant to this section or interest thereon, or to pay the costs and expenses of the authority. The principal of, and premium, if any, and interest on all bonds shall be payable solely by the authority in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. The bonds shall be issued by the authority in such amounts as the board shall determine, not exceeding in the aggregate at any time $5,000,000. Bonds of each issue shall be dated, shall bear interest at such rate or rates, including rates variable from time to time as determined by such index, banker's loan rate or other method as may be determined by the authority, and shall mature at such time or times as may be determined by the authority, except that no bonds shall mature more than 30 years from their date of issue. Bonds may be made redeemable before maturity either at the option of the authority or at the option of the holder, or upon the occurrence of specified events, at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the authority prior to the issuance of the bonds. The authority shall determine the form and details of the bond. The bonds may be sold in such manner, either at public or private sale, for such price, at such rate or rates of interest, or at such discount in lieu of interest as the authority may determine.

II. Every bond shall be signed on behalf of the authority by 2 persons designated by the authority. One person shall be a member of the board who is also the chairperson of the board, or the vice chairperson of the board, or the treasurer of the authority, or an assistant treasurer of the authority. The other person shall be any member of the board or the executive director of the authority. The signatures may be manual or facsimile but at least one signature on every bond shall be manual, unless the bond bears a manual authentication or certification by a bank, trust company or other financial institution, in which case both signatures on behalf of the authority may be facsimile. Interest coupons, if any, shall bear the facsimile signature of one of the persons signing the bond on behalf of the authority. Bonds shall also bear the seal of the authority or a facsimile of the seal. Bonds executed as provided in this paragraph shall be valid notwithstanding that any or all of the persons whose signatures appear on the bond shall have ceased to hold office before delivery of and payment for the bond.

III. Any bonds issued under this chapter may be issued pursuant to and entitled to the benefits of a security document between the authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or without the state, or by a security document directly between the authority and the purchasers of the bonds. Such security document shall be in such form and executed in such manner as may be determined by the board. Such security document may include the mortgage, pledge, or grant of a security interest in any property of the authority and may pledge or assign, in whole or in part, the revenues held or to be received by the authority, any contract or other rights to receive the revenues, whether then existing or thereafter coming into existence and whether then held or thereafter acquired by the authority, and any proceeds thereof. Such security documents may contain provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights, security, and remedies of the bondholders as may, in the discretion of the board, be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law. Such security documents may include provisions defining defaults and providing for remedies in the event of defaults, which may include the acceleration of maturities and the enforcement of any mortgage, pledge or security interest, and covenants setting forth the duties of, and limitations on, the authority in relation to the custody, safeguarding, investment, and application of moneys, the issue of additional or refunding bonds, the fixing, revision and collection of fees and other revenues, the use of bond proceeds, the establishment of reserves, the acquisition of any property or interest therein or undertaking of any project, any contracts relating thereto and subsequent amendments of such provisions and contracts. It shall be lawful for any bank or trust company to act as a depository or trustee of the proceeds of bonds, revenues, or other moneys under a security document and to furnish such indemnification or to pledge such securities and issue such letters or lines of credit or credit facilities as may be required by the authority acting under the paragraph. Any such security document may set forth the rights and remedies of bondholders and of the trustee and may restrict the individual right of action by bondholders.

IV. Any bonds issued under authority of this chapter may be issued pursuant to lines of credit or other banking arrangements under such terms and conditions not inconsistent with this chapter, and under such agreements with the purchasers or makers thereof, as the board may determine to be in the best interests of the authority. In addition to other security provided herein or otherwise by law, bonds issued by the authority under this section may be secured, in whole or in part, by insurance or by letters or lines of credit or other credit facilities issued to the authority by any bank, trust company or other financial institution, within or without the state, and the authority may make any pledge, mortgage, assignment or security interest in respect of its property and revenues as security for the reimbursement by the authority to the issuers of such letters or lines of credit, insurance or credit facilities, or any payments made thereunder.

V. Any mortgage, pledge or security interest made by the authority under this chapter shall be valid and binding and shall be deemed continuously perfected for the purposes of RSA 382-A and all other laws from the time when the mortgage, pledge, or security interest is made. The property or revenues so mortgaged, pledged, or subjected to a security interest then held or thereafter acquired or received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such mortgage, pledge, or security interest without any physical delivery or segregation thereof or further act. The lien of such mortgage, pledge, or security interest shall be valid and binding against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract, or otherwise against the authority, irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. No such property or revenues may be used in a manner inconsistent with the terms governing such mortgage, pledge, or security interest. Any agreement by which a pledge or security interest in personal property is created under this chapter shall be filed or recorded in the records of the secretary of state. ## ANNOUNCEMENTS

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. A point of personal privilege, please? You know, many times I talk to you about my career in life and I was a coach, and yesterday morning I lost a player who played for me at Bishop Bradley High School in 1962. His name was Richard Powers. Dickey was a great football player, a great basketball player, a great baseball player. We have a friendship that lasted from the day he walked on the field to this day. I spoke with him a couple of nights before he passed away. It's amazing to me when I begin to lose players that were close to me, very good friends of mine, and who I've lived through their lives as a high school player, as a college player, and as a coach. It's really difficult to take when you talk to a person on a Tuesday and they're dead on a Wednesday; it's inconceivable to me. And Dick Powers – it wasn't an easy life; he had a number of tough things happen. He had a son who took his own life, which was devastating to the family. He had a series of real physical problems, but he was a good human being, he was a great kid to coach, he was a great person to have a friend, and my sympathies go to his wife and his family. Dick Powers was an ordinary New Hampshire kid who really did well; he did well. And it's a tough life, we all understand that, and it wasn't an easy one for Dick. But, I will remember him as a solid human being, a wonderful athlete, good father, and a wonderful, wonderful friend; a wonderful friend.

And, along with Dickey, we lost just a magnificent human being in Bill Craig; former Democratic leader of the House of Representatives, a friend and a mentor to me, a guy who really knew his way around politics, did wonderful things for the city of Manchester. Bill Craig helped a lot of people, a lot of people, and he was a man who was true to his word. If Bill Craig gave you his word, boy his word was his bond. A lot of children – I think ten, twelve children; he came from a family of ten; worked hard; graduated from Saint Joseph's; graduated from Saint A's; I think went to Boston College Law School; made a mark on New Hampshire politics and New Hampshire history.

So, we're losing a lot of great people. It kind of makes us all understand that our lifespan is finite, so do the best you can with what you've got, and I think both of these guys did that. They did the best they could and they helped others. And, as I say, the great legend that you leave, or the great legacy you leave, is the fact that you made an impact on other people's lives; you did something good for others and you stand behind it. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Senator Gannon.)

SENATOR GANNON: Mine is much more light-hearted. But, I just want to thank Senator Birdsell and Senator Carson for taking me into their committees and teach me this last year. All four Gannon children, I want you to know, are a treasurer or vice president in their classes, so we're doing good there; and my number three, Carrie, is the fastest freshman in the state and is going onto the State's, and that's it for the Gannon Family. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MORSE: Any further announcements? I have one; I'll try to make my way through it. I first want to thank Kristy, Shannon, Bobby, Josh, Kate, Rick – what they've done for the Senate is incredible. You know, when my father was being buried they all came in in the morning that day to make sure you functioned, which I truly appreciate. Thank you.

You know, my sister wrote something, and I don't know how she delivered it, but I'm going to give you a piece of it because I think you need to know what a great man my step-father was.

Richard John Deputy, to many he was Dick Deputy; to us he was Dad, Daddy-o, Grandpa, and Papa; born June 8th, 1937 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to Edward and Marie Deputy. He had twin sisters, Joan and Joyce. Although Daddy-o did move out of the area, he often visited them and helped them out tremendously with anything they needed. Most people would bring home a cooked meal when they visited a family, but not Daddy-o. He would bring a washer, a dryer, a TV, whatever they needed. After finishing school Daddy-o joined the S.S. Kresge Company in Philadelphia as a stock person; within two years he had already become an assistant manager. He would be transferred from store to store along the East Coast, but it was in January of 1972 when he became the store manager of a brand new Kmart in Salem, New Hampshire. His employees loved him. He had unmatched knowledge of the retail industry, and was always trying to beat his numbers one day to the next. It was this very store that he met the love of his life, Doris Morse. It was always Dick and Doris, they were inseparable. He loved her so much he was willing to take on the challenge of three more children. Over the years you could imagine the energy to raise five kids that were between middle school and high school. Although Alzheimer's seemed to consume a lot of their later years, my parents were fortunate enough to get some of the traveling done before they became ill. And the one thing Dick firmly believed in, which was kind of crazy, was John Wayne. He had this thing about movies and favorite actors. And my sister read it at the very end, and it certainly is what I believe in: "When the road looks rough ahead, remember the 'Man Upstairs' and the word H-O-P-E. Hang onto both and 'tough it out'." Thank you all for everything you did.

(The Chair recognized Senator D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. As our great colleague from District 23 always says, let's end on a high note. Okay? On Saturday, the beautiful and talented Mrs. D'Allesandro and I will celebrate our 57th wedding anniversary! So, I have to say she's made 57 years great. I'm very, very fortunate, and God bless her. That's all I can say. Thank you very much.

(The Chair recognized Senator Gannon.)

SENATOR GANNON: I went to the Special Olympics last year at UNH, and I'm sure the Dean will join me this year. They would love all of us to be there in some function; either giving out awards or cheering them on at races. So, if any of you have the week, it's about a month from now. If you can go to the Special Olympics, if we could all be there together it would be really fun, too. So, you'll see it in your e-mail, so hopefully you all can attend. Thank you.

Without objection, all personal privileges and unanimous consent shall be entered into the permanent Journal of the Senate. (Rule 2-16 and Rule 2-17). Adopted.

MOTION TO RECESS TO CALL OF THE CHAIR

This enrolled bill amendment incorporates changes to RSA 21-J:3-a made by 2018, 52 (SB 406-FN) and inserts a contingency to address potential conflicts with HB 1684 of the 2018 regular legislative session.

Enrolled Bill Amendment to SB 386

36 Department of Revenue Administration; Duties of Commissioner; Background Checks. Amend RSA 21-J:3-a to read as follows:

21-J:3-a [~~Employee Candidate~~] Background Checks.

I. The commissioner of the department of revenue administration may require a background investigation and a criminal history records check on any candidate for employment in a position in the department prior to a final offer of employment. The commissioner may request only a state records check or both a federal and state records check, to be conducted through the division of state police. The commissioner may extend a conditional offer of employment to a candidate, with a final offer of employment subject to a successfully completed criminal history records check.

I-a. The commissioner of the department of revenue administration may require a background investigation and a criminal history records check on any current employee of the department for the purpose of determining that employee's suitability to access confidential tax information, including federal tax information. II. A candidate for employment in a position in the department or a current employee required by the commissioner to submit to a background investigation and a criminal history records check shall submit to the commissioner a criminal history records release form, as provided by the division of state police, which authorizes the release of the person's criminal records, if any. In the event that the first set of fingerprints is invalid due to insufficient pattern and a second set of fingerprints is necessary in order to complete the criminal history records check, [the] any conditional offer of employment shall remain in effect. If, after 2 attempts, a set of fingerprints is invalid due to insufficient pattern, the commissioner may, in lieu of the criminal history records check, accept police clearances from every city, town, or county where a candidate or employee has lived during the past 5 years.

III. To obtain a state records check only, the commissioner or his or her designee shall submit a state criminal history records release form to the division of state police. To obtain both the federal and the state records check, the commissioner or his or her designee shall submit the criminal history records release form and applicant finger print card to the division of state police, which shall conduct a criminal history records check through its records and through the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Upon completion of the background investigation, the division of state police shall report any criminal conviction information to the commissioner or his or her designee. The commissioner or his or her designee may submit fingerprint information electronically, in accordance with procedures established by the division of state police. The department shall maintain the confidentiality and security of all criminal history records information received pursuant to this paragraph.

IV. The commissioner may require the candidate or employee to pay the actual costs of the background investigation and the criminal history records check.

V. For purposes of this section, the terms "candidate" and "employee" shall include any contractor, subcontractor, vendor, or other person performing work, including unpaid work or as a volunteer, at the department of revenue administration.
