Senate President's Statement on Sen. Odell Retirement

Concord, NH – Senate President Chuck Morse, R-Salem, issued the following statement today after Senate Ways and Means Chairman Bob Odell, R-New London, announced he would be retiring after this term:

“During his seven terms in the legislature Senator Odell earned a well-deserved reputation as a diligent and dedicated representative of his district and as a public servant committed to working with anyone, regardless of political party, to improve the well-being of his constituents and his state. Bob has always been among my closest confidants and I have relied on him consistently for both his political acumen and his commonsense understanding of this state, its people, and its economy.

“I, and all the members of the Senate, have been honored to call Bob a friend and a colleague, and together we wish him years of happiness with his family and friends and all the best in his well-deserved retirement.”
