Senator Bradley Statement on Sen. Bragdon Retirement

Concord, NH – Senate Majority Leader Jeb Bradley, R-Wolfeboro, issued the following statement on Senator Bragdon's retirement:

"Senator Bragdon's leadership of the Senate following the 2010 elections was instrumental in passing a budget that closed an $800 million deficit, enacting overdue retirement reform to protect our pension system, and a passing host of other measures that have helped the New Hampshire economy grow. Throughout his time in the Senate, Peter has effectively and faithfully served his constituents, right up to his recent efforts to bring long-sought toll relief to the residents of Merrimack.

"It has been an honor to service with Senator Bragdon throughout my time in the Senate and I join with Senator Morse and my Senate colleagues in wishing him continued success in his role with HealthTrust."
