Cataldo to retire from Senate at end of session

Concord, NH – Senator Sam Cataldo (R-Farmington), who serves District 6, issued the following statement.

“After a combined 12 years serving in the House and Senate, I have decided to retire from my seat in the Senate following the conclusion of this session.”

“I’ve had the utmost pleasure of serving my constituents in District 6 as a State Senator and am thankful for all of the support I have received throughout my time in the Legislature.”

“In all of my professional careers and the roles I have served in, being a State Senator has been the most rewarding work I have been able to do in my life. In the future, I look forward to continuing to serve the citizens and the State of New Hampshire in other capacities.”
