Senate President Morse statement on the passing of Commissioner Van McLeod

Concord, NH – Senate President Chuck Morse (R-Salem) issued the following statement:

“On behalf of the Senate, I would like to offer our sincerest condolences to the family, friends and colleagues of New Hampshire’s Department of Cultural Resources Commissioner Van McLeod, who sadly, passed away this morning.”

“We have all had the distinctive opportunity to work with Commissioner McLeod, who brought to the department his unending passion for the arts and commitment to strengthening cultural resources across New Hampshire. Commissioner McLeod was a genuine and highly regarded individual and a truly dedicated public servant whose work to preserve and grow the arts community in our state will be forever remembered.”
