Daniels announces agency presentation schedule for April

Concord, NH - Today, Senate Finance Chair Gary Daniels (R-Milford) issued the following statement:

“The Senate’s phase of the budget process will begin on Monday, April 10 with agency presentations that will continue throughout the month of April. We will also hold a public hearing later in the process and I will announce that date as soon as possible.”

“The Senate engages in a rigorous process when producing the budget and I believe we are most successful when our legislators and citizens voices are heard. I encourage everyone to be part of this process and I look forward to working closely with the House and Governor as well as constituents in the next few weeks to produce a budget that is good for New Hampshire.”
