Senate President Jeb Bradley Defends School Choice

Concord, NH – Senate President Jeb Bradley (R-Wolfeboro) issued the following statement in response to a New Hampshire teachers’ union lawsuit attempting to end Education Freedom Accounts for Granite State students:

“It’s unfortunate that AFT has sued to block New Hampshire’s very successful Education Freedom Account program that has given 3,000 students of families of modest means the opportunities they need to get the best education possible.

“AFT’s targeting of low-income students is inappropriate and counterproductive.”
