Senior Staff

Debra Vanderbeek will serve as Senate Chief of Staff. She brings more than 35 years of experience in public policy and advocacy, issues management and communications. Vanderbeek has worked on complex policy issues such as healthcare, energy, and consumer issues at the local, state, and national levels. She previously served as a congressional Chief of Staff in Washington, D.C and has served as the Senate Chief of Staff for the past two years

Grant Bosse has been promoted to Deputy Chief of Staff. He is a veteran of Granite State journalism and government for the past 25 years, including the New Hampshire House and Senate, the Union Leader, and the Josiah Bartlett Center. Grant has extensive public policy experience in budgeting and education funding.

Maya Harvey will serve as Communications Director. She is a New Hampshire native with a background in international business and political communications. Maya worked as Press Secretary for the New Hampshire Republican Party and served as Communications Director for the Chuck Morse U.S Senate campaign.

Richard Lehmann will continue to serve as Senate Legal Counsel. Attorney Lehmann is a Boston University School of Law graduate and worked as an Assistant Merrimack County Attorney and in the Office of the New Hampshire Attorney General's Criminal Justice Bureau. He has been in private practice since 2000.

Daley Frenette will serve as the Majority Caucus Director. A political science graduate from Saint Anselm, he previously served as a Senate Aide to the Senate Committee on Energy for the 2021-2022 legislative session.
