

A “non-financial personal interest” exists where a legislator or household member is a member of a public body, or has a responsibility for the welfare of an organization. A legislator or household member has a responsibility for the welfare of an organization when the legislator or household member holds a position with a fiduciary responsibility, such as a board member, trustee, or director.

Identify and describe below the non-financial personal interest you or a household member may have. A "household member" is any person living in the same domicile as you who shares a common economic interest in the expenses of daily living, including, but not limited to, a spouse, child, or parent.
