Senator Cavanaugh Reacts to Governor's Veto of SB 20

CONCORD—Today, Governor Sununu vetoed SB 20, relative to notification requirements for employees, workplace inspections, and the youth employment law. The bill would have reduced the amount of hours 16-17 year-olds can work in six consecutive days from 48 hours to 40 hours.

After the veto, prime sponsor Senator Kevin Cavanaugh (D-Manchester) released the following statement:

“As the father of three children in the workforce, there is nothing more important to me than their safety and well-being. I can’t believe a family man like the governor would block legislation to protect New Hampshire’s employed youth.”
