Senate President and Speaker of the House Announce Continuing Resolution

CONCORD—Today, Senate President Donna Soucy (D-Manchester) and Speaker of the House Steve Shurtleff (D-Concord) released the following statement regarding the House and Senate passage of HJR 3, making temporary appropriations for the expenses and encumbrances of the state of New Hampshire.

“The House and Senate have worked hard to build a balanced budget that addresses the concerns raised by the governor while tackling the important issues facing our state. While Governor Sununu considers the budget, we are committed to ensuring that the citizens of New Hampshire and our dedicated state employees do not experience any interruption of programs or services. This continuing resolution, which the governor has assured us he will sign, allows the state to continue current budget spending levels for three months if Governor Sununu vetoes the budget.”
