Senator Cavanaugh Condemns Republicans' Union Busting Legislation

CONCORD - Today, Senate Republicans presented SB 651 to the Senate Judiciary Committee. If adopted, SB 651 a so-called "Right to Work" bill, would limit the power of unions and deny them the necessary resources to advocate on behalf of their members. Following the hearing the Committee voted 4-1 against the measure.

Senator Kevin Cavanaugh (D - Manchester) issued the following statement in opposition to SB 651:

"Right to work is wrong for New Hampshire. When we take power away from our unions we are taking power directly from our workforce. I thank my colleagues for rejecting this attack on hardworking Granite Staters—not corporate special interests."
