NH Legislative Activity Suspension Extended Through May 4

CONCORD—Today, New Hampshire Senate President Donna Soucy and Speaker of the House Stephen Shurtleff announced that in conjunction with the Governor's Emergency Order, the General Court has extended the suspension of all legislative activities through May 4th. The State House and Legislative Office Building will remain closed to legislative members, legislative staff, and visitors.

Following the announcement, the Senate President and Speaker of the House released the following statement:

"In conjunction with the Governor's stay at home order issued today, we have extended the suspension of legislative activities through May 4 to protect the health and wellbeing of our members, staff, and the public. While lawmakers are not at the State House, we continue to work with our communities, state agencies, and Governor Sununu to address this outbreak and curb the health and economic impacts as much as possible."
