CONCORD—Today, House Finance Chair Mary Jane Wallner (D-Concord) and Senate Finance Chair Lou D'Allesandro (D-Manchester) announced that the Fiscal Committee will be meeting on April 10th at 10am. The committee will meet via a teleconference service and the call-in information will be released shortly.

After the announcement, Representative Wallner and Senator D'Allesandro released the following statement:

"It is important for New Hampshire that the Fiscal Committee meet to accept any federal funding and work with state agencies to ensure they have the funding in the right accounts to help New Hampshire fight the COVID-19 pandemic. We look forward to doing all we can to continue to flatten the curve and protect the health and wellbeing of Granite Staters."
