

Each passing day brings another cut in the fabric of democracy, and the Republican party seems bent on destroying our way of life. I am so glad that I am a senior and not raising children in what feels like the demise of the freedom, and especially the sacred right to have every vote counted, that so many have fought and died for. Please take politics out of redistricting & let us return to rule by majority.

Wayne Smith

Dover, NH